The President's New Year Message

During the last few years, the American Numismatic Association has experienced a remarkable growth in membership. Are newcomers flocking to join because a gradual increase in living standards gives more time for leisure? With leisure, are men becoming more curious? As we rush through the Twentieth Century, bewildered by problems both national and international, are we turning to a study of coins as an aid to understanding how mankind arrived where he is today? For example, do we collect and ponder Roman coinage as one facet of Roman political and economic history because the empire which rose on the banks of the Tiber suffered through vicissitudes remarkably parallel to those which today confront citizens of the United States?

I would like to believe that our new members are impelled by these intelligent and lofty motives, but unhappily evidence points to a different conclusion. The majority of our beginning collectors are attracted to the association by the prospect of quick and lucrative profit from mint errors, rolls, and eye-straining variations in current coinage.

The great tragedy is that so few will realize excessive profit from their efforts. Disenchanted, some will drop out, perhaps turning to collect uncirculated match covers or very fine beer bottle tops.

But there is room for optimism. I would prefer to have our "transient members," shall we call them, among us for two or three years than never to have had them at all. But more important, among our newly admitted members, some will be "bitten by the bug" and will never recover. Growing in numismatic knowledge, they will regard interest in mint errors and rolls and variations in the 1960 Philadelphia cent as the bottom rung of an adventurous and inspiring ladder.

Some of the most enjoyable experiences in life await those who climb this ladder. Acquiring a long sought coin, forming new and warm friendships, traveling scenic routes to distant conventions, through research becoming an "expert" on the coins of Alexander the Great or the 1804 American dollar, these are a few of the stimulating attainments awaiting those who ascend the ladder of numismatics.

In this, my last New Year Message as your President, may your ascent up the ladder be steady and rewarding. To our fine members in the United States and our eminent members in other lands, may health, success and happiness brighten your homes through 1961 and the years ahead.

AMERICAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

The American Numismatic Association is the largest and most active numismatic body in the world. It invites and welcomes to membership all worthy persons seventeen years of age or over, who have a sincere interest in numismatics, whether they collect coins, paper money, tokens or medals, whether advanced collectors or only those generally interested in the subject without being collectors. The Association was founded in 1891, and has over 20,000 members from every state in the Union and many foreign countries. It is federally incorporated by an Act of Congress in 1912 and is a mutual organization for the benefit of its members.

All Association members, except Associate, receive the official publication, The Numismatist, without cost other than their annual dues. Membership applications should be accompanied by $5.00 for the first year's dues and $2.00 admittance fee. Annual dues are $5.00. Nonmember subscription, $6.00. Single copy, fifty cents. For application blanks, subscriptions or general information, write to the General Secretary.

The Numismatist is an illustrated monthly which has been issued continuously since its founding in 1888, consists of 128 pages or more in each number and has subscribers in about sixty countries. Advertising inquiries should be sent to the Advertising Manager. All other matters for possible publication in or concerning The Numismatist are to be forwarded to the Editor. Unsolicited manuscripts, which are sent at the owner's risk, and other correspondence calling for a reply must be accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelopes. Opinions expressed in articles published in The Numismatist are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the views of the American Numismatic Association or the Editor.

LET'S HAVE NEW COMMEMORATIVE COINS

By

DR. CHARLES E. WEBER, LM 285

WHEN we survey the numismatic history of western civilization, we are struck by the long and rich tradition of commemorative coinage, a tradition which goes back to the Renaissance. Moreover, it may even be asserted that the bulk of Roman imperial issues and some of the Greek issues are essentially of a commemorative nature. When we survey the current strikings, we are also impressed by the fact that this tradition has by no means been broken in recent decades. The last half century has produced many of the best commemorative coins in the history of coinage. Notable issues have been produced by Austria, Germany, Israel, Czechoslovakia, Switzerland, Sweden, Mexico and many other countries. On the whole, these issues have been of considerable artistic merit and have been produced in relatively large quantities for general distribution. One of the most important antecedents for these modern pieces is the series of commemorative talers and double talers struck by Bavaria during the nineteenth century. (Cf. Numismatist, January, 1960)

Commemorative coins have been struck by so many countries during so many periods that we must conclude that they fulfill universal human needs. What are these needs? The real wealth of a nation is largely to be expressed in terms of human values; the deeds of its national heroes and the accomplishments of its thinkers, scientists, scholars, artists and musicians. The awareness of these deeds and accomplishments is a source of strength to a nation.

This is one great need commemorative coins fulfill, but there are others. Most human beings desire to possess objects they consider beautiful; if such objects have an intrinsic value, so much the dearer. The designing of commemorative coins is an important outlet for the artistic energies of a nation. Furthermore, commemorative coins can even be a source of economic strength to a nation if struck in large quantities. They are a source of profit to governments in modern times, since most currencies are now of a quasi-flat nature, including our own. They can also provide a reserve of purchasing power when economic stagnation threatens. The increased need of silver can act as a stimulus to the mining industry. Finally, a commemorative series issued on a sound basis would act as an antidote to the inane speculation in particular dates and give a greater intellectual substance to our numismatic activities.

We Americans need not be ashamed of some of the aspects of our monetary tradition. There is hardly another country in the world that can point to a series of issues going back into the eighteenth century with such a fine continuity and stability. With only the exception of the trade dollar, which was struck to fulfill a temporary economic need (cf. Numismatist, April, 1960, pp. 416-417), none of our issues has been demonetized. Many of our coin types are of considerable artistic merit and in a few instances have been the results of the efforts of outstanding artists. Alas, however, our commemorative pieces were nearly invariably issued in such a manner that they could not fulfill the needs to our nation as outlined above. In most cases they were issued in pitifully small quantities, in a number of instances they commemorated persons and events of interest only to a quite limited group and frequently enough they have been of very modest artistic qualities. Of the fifty types of U. S. commemorative silver coins, twenty-four were struck during the years 1934-1936, a grotesque circumstance. Worst of all, however, nearly all of our commemorative coins were sold at premiums, which fact defeated the most obvious ob-they at least offer a basis of discussion in any efforts that could be made to overcome a very regrettable situation.

1. For a number of reasons, the half dollar is the most ideal denomination for commemorative coins. It is the largest denomination being currently issued and would provide the artist a maximal freedom of expression. Also, the economic advantages mentioned above would be maximal in the case of this coin.
2. The commemorative series of Austria of the period 1928-1937 furnishes a good model. We, too, might well make the habit of striking one

U. S. Lafayette commemorative dollar, 1900

U. S. trade dollar, 1877

jectives of commemorative coinage and caused that coinage to be the object of a greedy speculation. Because of these unfortunate circumstances and the resultant weakness with regard to our tradition of striking commemorative coins, efforts to have new commemorative coins are bound to meet with a certain understandable antipathy on the part of our legislators and officials.

Now let us consider concrete proposals in regard to the issuing of commemorative coins. These proposals may have their flaws, but — only one — commemorative coin per annum that deals with a person or an event of real significance. This motif might be chosen by a committee of numismatists acting in an advisory capacity to the appropriate groups within the Congress.

3. The design itself would be the result of an open competition and be rewarded by a fixed fee. This fee (perhaps $500) need not be high, since the honor of designing our only commemorative coin during a certain year would be a great incentive in itself for the artist. The government would easily recover such a fee and the costs of making the special dies by the profits inherent in producing our currency, since a large percentage of these coins would be kept out of circulation by virtue of their numismatic value.

4. The quantity of commemorative coins struck during a given year presents a considerable technical problem, but it should be large and not haphazard. It might represent a fixed number (e.g. 500,000 or 1,000,000) or a fixed percentage of the coins struck of the denomination in question (perhaps 10%).

U. S. commemorative Isabella quarter, 1892

5. Commemorative coins should never be issued at a premium* over their face value; they should be distributed through normal banking channels and a given type should be used for one year only, while it has a real commemorative, not speculative, purpose.

By following the suggestions made above, we would be following the practices of nearly all other countries that have issued commemorative coins in modern times. We would thus enable our commemorative coins to fulfill their very important functions. The issuing of commemorative coins at a premium is certainly counter to our democratic traditions, and it is thus ironic that we should be one of the few nations to do so. Perhaps the principles outlined above would be instrumental in the establishing of a wholesome national tradition in the issuing of commemorative coins.

In any event, our legislators must be made aware of the great potentialities inherent in the issuing of commemorative coins. Indeed, if legislation could be enacted providing for the automatic issuing of one commemorative type per annum, the issuing of commemorative coins need never again be dependent on the whims or arbitrary views of incumbent legislators or officials, as has been the case in the past. The ever-growing strength of the American Numismatic Association and its many affiliated groups could, if properly aroused and directed, be instrumental in the introduction of such legislation.

*There is an argument used against commemorative coins to the effect that such coins would cause confusion in trade. Perhaps some would suggest that an initial premium would therefore be necessary in order to keep commemorative coins out of trade channels. It is not necessary, however, to keep them out of trade. The problem has been solved in the case of most coin-issuing governments by using an unchanging reverse (or obverse, as in the case of the Canadian commemoratives) design and confining the commemorative motif to the obverse (or reverse, as the case may be). As a matter of practice, however, it is improbable that very many commemorative coins would be kept in protracted circulation if struck in appropriate quantities.

Crazy

Many a story has been told

How men were lured by bags of gold
Who would think, in this Age of Space
Bags of cents would set the pace?

There's the '60 wide, the '60 small,

The '60 medium, the "one" that's tall,
The "nine" that's filled, the "B" is, too.

I'm irritated by this freakish stew.

Some dealers are riding the gravy train,

For goodness sake, are we all insane?

We've broken out with a "detail rash";

Must we be deviled with such balderdash?

Seventieth Annual A.N.A. Convention

ATLANTA IN 1961

Georgia members of the American Numismatic Association will welcome over two thousand members of the organization to its seventieth convention August 16-19, 1961 at Atlanta's traditional convention locale, the Atlanta Biltmore Hotel.

Civil War enthusiasts will find many points of historic interest as Atlanta prepares for the upcoming Civil War Centennial. These include famous Stone Mountain, the world's largest exposed formation of granite, bearing the unfinished Confederate memorial commemorated on the Stone Mountain half dollars of 1925 and the famous Cyclorama, depicting the Battle of Atlanta.

A tour for convention delegates is planned to Dahlonega, the site of America's first gold strike. Members will be given an opportunity to pan for gold. A special tour of Atlanta's famous residential districts is planned for the ladies.

Exhibits chairman for the seventieth A.N.A. convention is Philip S. Reed, P. O. Box 234, Atlanta 1, Ga. Bourse chairman is Robert J. Rooks, 2338 Beecher Circle, S.W., Atlanta 11.—GEORGE M. TODD, General Chairman.

An innovation by the Central California Coin Club is the use of runners to deliver auction lots to bidders and collect for the items as they are sold.

DISCOVERING NEW DIE "VARIETIES"

By

MICHAEL M. DOLNICK, A.N.A. No. 20785

The discovery of the small and large date variety of the 1960 Lincoln cent was publicized and exploited to an unprecedented degree. Certain collectors and dealers with manipulative talent found this sudden surge in public interest most rewarding. Others, unfortunately, who had lesser skills and experience in this phase of coin collecting discovered that transactions in the 1960 small date market resulted in profits only to those from whom they bought the merchandise. This group, however, need not have been left holding the bag (of 1960 small dates). By following the procedures discussed below, each disciple of the die variety school of coin collecting has an opportunity to get on the bandwagon first by discovering and publicizing his own new finds. This article is not a definitive piece of research on die varieties—it is merely a how-to-do-it discussion for the benefit of all.

I believe that die variety collectors have not examined the 1960 cents with sufficient care and consequently have not exhausted all possibilities for new varieties. Why should there be only small dates, large dates, medium dates, medium small dates and medium large dates? There are many more varieties possible because there are many dies used in the production of coins and each die has a potential as a source for a new variety.

For best results in hunting die varieties a metallurgical microscope with a micrometer stage is needed.

Such microscopes are available for about a thousand dollars or more. This instrument measures to a hundred thousandth of an inch, which should be adequate for all but the most die hard of variety collectors. With this instrument an entire new world of exploration is opened and the number of varieties waiting to be discovered becomes infinite.

As an example I believe we should start with the reverse of the cent, the side which has been too long neglected by those preoccupied with dates. The Lincoln Memorial shows twelve columns in need of examination under the microscope. These columns vary in thickness from .0275 to .0306 of an inch based on sample number of measurements made with this microscope.

The first step is the creation of a classification system of column thicknesses and we can arbitrarily decide that columns under .0285 of an inch are thin, columns between .0286 and .0295 of an inch are medium and columns .0296 of an inch and over are thick. Now we have a good start in determining varieties such as thick first-medium third column; or thin second-medium fourth-thin fifth column; etc., The possible number of combinations of three thicknesses of the twelve columns is one million, five hundred ninety-four thousand, three hundred and twenty-three (1,594,323), which should provide a challenging start to the serious die variety enthusiast.

Perhaps this is a little far-fetched for the average variety hunter who considers combinations of factors a little bit extreme for purposes of classification. We can then go back to the obverse and stick to only one variable, in this case Lincoln's nose. The nose varies in length from .1228 to .1406 of an inch, based on a small number of sample measurements; undoubtedly the variations are much greater if a sufficient number of measurements would be made. A nose measurement of over .1356 of an inch could be classified as the long nose variety; from .1337 to .1355 of an inch as the medium nose; and from .1228 to .1336 of an inch as the short nose variety.

Michael M. Dolnick, Chicago, Ill., is A.N.A. Custodian of Slides. Adept at tongue-in-cheek type of writing, as regular readers of The Numismatist know, here he spoofs the current craze for "new discoveries" in the 1960 small cent field.

Think of the possibilities centering around Lincoln's beard. Variations in measurements as revealed by the microscope could produce all types of picturesque classifications such as bushy bearded Lincolns are barbered cents. It is interesting to speculate about the confusion which could arise by referring to a barbered cent and a Barber dime in the same advertisement.

A typical advertisement might begin:

Long Nosed Lincolns — each nose guaranteed to exceed (.1356) inches. The rare thick second, thin fourth, medium eleventh column variety — not to be confused with the common long nosed Lincoln — thin first, thin third, thick seventh column variety.

For real success in die variety exploitation it is necessary to follow certain principles in advertising. The best ads specify the following:

1. This is a new, previously undiscovered variety.
2. The quantity is limited, based on the fact that you found only a few after much searching.
3. Be the first person in your club to own one.
4. There is the possibility that it will be listed in future Red Books.
5. Give the make and price of the recommended microscopes to use or better yet, offer a selection of used microscopes for sale in the same ad.
6. Price the item high enough to impress the buyer that this is not junk.

When we can stimulate enough collectors to undertake die variety hunting seriously we may be able to achieve our ultimate objective. This is to have complete issues of journals for collectors devoted entirely to advertisements of die varieties of a single year, each variety discovered by a different person and each one claiming his to be the real rarity and find of the season.

A.N.A. REPRINT BOOKS

No more orders for the A.N.A. Reprint Books will be accepted by General Secretary Lewis M. Reagan. Purchases may now be made only through retail outlets, such as your book seller or coin dealer, or directly from the publisher.

A.N.A. members have responded enthusiastically and have placed thousands of orders for them. The General Secretary's office has been overwhelmed in processing these book orders, which have been added to the work of renewing over twenty thousand memberships and several thousand library and institutional subscriptions. So if you have ordered your books through the General Secretary's office, please do not write and ask about your order. As the books come from the press, they will be sent directly to you by Whitman Publishing Company, Racine, Wis.

No shipments of the third book (Ancient and Medieval Coins) or the fourth book (Modern Foreign Currency) will be made until after mid-January, at which time both books are scheduled to come off the presses.

Please be patient.

WILLIAM G. JERREMS, JR.

First President

By

JACK W. OGILVIE, LM 93, HISTORIAN

There is a list in the May, 1960 A.N.A. Library Catalog naming the thirty-one persons whom the membership of our organization have elected to the high office of president. The list merely gives the chronological order and their tenure as president. Other sources reveal their vocations as well as their avocations, their accomplishments while in office and their devotion to the science of numismatics. These honored gentlemen, always serving without remuneration, dedicated themselves to the task of building the A.N.A. from Dr. Heath's "baby" to the gigantic association of today. They are, indeed, a truly interesting group of esteemed numismatists.

William G. Jerrems Jr., First President

A self-styled student of numismatics, William G. Jerrems, Jr., of Chicago had been a subscriber to The Numismatist from its first issue. When Dr. George F. Heath, its editor, asked for opinions regarding the formation of a national association of numismatists, young Bill was one of the first to sanction the idea and was assigned Number Three on the membership list. During the preorganization period in the spring and summer of 1891, he was quite active and took such an interest that Heath appointed him temporary President. Another youngster, Charles T. Tatman, who conducted a coin column in a New York magazine but lived in Worcester, Mass., was allotted Number Two and made Secretary pro tem. By October this trio, with the help of a few others, had mustered sixty-one charter members as a nucleus of an organization.

On October 7, 1891, six men, Heath, Tatman, Jerrems, Harlow, Brydon and Heckelman met in a small hotel room in Chicago and officially organized the American Numismatic Association. At this, the first A.N.A. convention, it was agreed that "Dr. Heath was really the logical man for office (of President) but he declared that he wanted younger men to do the pushing and he (Heath) would stand behind them, and as a result I became the first President." The above quotation is from an article by Jerrems in the October, 1941, Numismatist.

Tatman retained his post as Secretary, Joseph Hooper of Port Hope, Ontario, was elected Vice President, David Harlow, Treasurer and Sam Chapman, Librarian and Curator. Board of Trustees (now the Board of Governors) consisted of Charles W. Stutesman, W. Kelsey Hall, J. A. Heckelman and — two present day Charter members — John F. Jones and Hiram E. Deats. The old pro himself remained as Editor of The Numismatist and in an advisory capacity. The constitution and by-laws were adopted, a library was started and the A.N.A. was off to a good start.

Under such splendid leadership the organization grew to 122 members in its first year of existence. Small compared to enrollments of today but large, indeed, for an association spread over three countries. Among those induced to join were such noteworthy numismatists as: Farrar Ineson, first Canadian to enter; J. D. B. F. McKenzie, New Brunswick; John Morse, Mass.; Clarence Mathis, Nebr.; Charles Morris, Chicago; Ed Heusinger, Texas; Thomas Voetter, Calif.; Cicero Peregrino of Brazil.

Also entering were: John Brudin, Swedish, who attributed Oriental coins; Rev. Jeremiah Zimmerman, an authority on ancients; Edward Frossard, whose specialty was cents and half cents and Lyman H. Low whose book on hard times tokens is still the standard. The last two were dealers. Other professional numismatists who enrolled that year were: Herbert Morey; the fabulous Chapman brothers, Henry and Sam; Charles Steigerwalt; A. H. Baldwin and the Spink brothers, London. Three men who were destined to become Presidents joined during this period. They were Dr. B. P. Wright, A. G. Heaton and that grand present day patriarch, George J. Bauer. Dr. Heath certainly had these sterling personalities in mind when he said "The A.N.A. is in good hands."

At convention time in October, 1892, our President declined a second term in favor of his good friend Dr. Heath but switched to the Board of Trustees for a year before dropping from the official family. He admitted that he was "too fully occupied with business interests to devote much time to numismatics." This business was "Nicoll, the Tailor with branches in all principal cities" or so the ads in The Numismatist of that time stated. Bill's father, William Sr., married Mary Nicoll shortly after the Civil War and William Jr., eldest of six children was born in 1869. Junior sort of grew into the business and fit like the suits they tailored. In the '90s, his father took over the western branches while Bill headed the receiving and distributing center in Chicago.

The fascination of numismatics once more lured him away from his stock rooms and soon after the turn of the century, Jerrems again was one of six men who, this time, formed the original Chicago Numismatic Society. Others of this group were: present Honorary member Michael P. Carey, later pilfered from the Windy City by Los Angeles; William F. Dunham and the famous Virgil Brand. The last two gentlemen possessed fabulous collections.

Our first President started collecting coins at the age of thirteen. His early favorites were copper coins of which he amassed some nine thousand specimens. His Greek and Roman collection totaled about fifty-five hundred pieces. He sold most of the latter to the Chapmans in 1916 while the copper coins went to Virgil Brand. His Chinese coins were attributed by John Brudin and published in early volumes of The Numismatist. He also collected U. S. large cents, English silver coins, stamps, mineral specimens, Indian artifacts and some three thousand books. What you might call a general collector! He derived the greatest pleasure from collecting and studying coins and medals.

Jerrems moved to Kansas City in 1917 where he resided until his death in December of 1945, and oddly enough only a week prior to the demise of his good friend and coworker - Charles Tatman, A.N.A. Number Two. Members of the Heart of America Numismatic Association often called upon him to discuss the "old days" of collecting and talk about the many "old timers" who were his acquaintances. These discussions were a source of great pleasure to him. The H.A.N.A. was one of the first clubs to make him an honorary member.

At the 1934 Cleveland convention he was made an Honorary member of the A.N.A. The resolution was signed by seven Ex-presidents and is pictured on page 87 of the February, 1935, Numismatist. The New York Numismatic Club awarded him and the King of Italy honorary memberships the same evening.

"HELP! WE'VE BEEN ROBBED"

By

ROBERT N. WILLIAMS, A.N.A. No. 28508

"I T CAN'T happen to me," is the thought that passes through the minds of most collectors when the possibility of coin collection thefts is mentioned. We live in a false sense of security concerning our everyday lives. Some of the fallacies we continue to entertain in order to support this false sense of security are these:

1. I keep all my doors locked.
2. My house is on a busy street.
3. I leave a light on when I go out.
4. My neighbors keep an eye on my house.
5. No one knows of my collection except a few friends.
6. I'm careful of contacts and advertise for coins from a box number.
7. I keep my collection in a safe.
8. Thieves can't "fence" old coins.
9. We live in a good neighborhood.

I was robbed. I live on a busy street in a good neighborhood with fine neighbors who are fairly familiar with the habits of our household. Thieves broke through three doors and stole $4,000 worth of coins which weighed over 120 pounds, and also stole three suitcases in which to carry the loot. Then they boldly left by way of the front door. (Just at dusk, a neighbor saw a man at our back door, and saw lights flickering through the windows. She had heard that we were planning a trip, and she concluded the man at the back door was a policeman checking the house, and the lights she saw flickering were reflections of automobile headlights passing the front of the house. Her conclusions were not illogical.) Most people tend to place crime at the bottom of the list when they notice something unusual. Police estimated that entry was made within two minutes and the robbery was completed within ten minutes. Needless to say, although most thieves are not interested in vandalism, they can make quite a mess out of a house.

A fellow collector lost about $5,000 in coins about two weeks later. He had an automatic light switching arrangement for his living room. The burglars simply turned the light off one night and vanished without a clue. This man advertised through a box number only and very few people knew of his collection.

In these robberies, and many others, the significant trend one should observe is the fact that only coins were stolen. Furs, jewelry, and cameras were left untouched.

What about safes? Surely this would be an ideal place to keep a collection! It is true that safes can be picked up very cheaply second hand. If you want to use one, get the biggest you can find. Safes are often stolen in toto and opened at the thieves' convenience somewhere else. A four hundred pound safe offers no problem to resourceful thieves.

These facts explode all the little fallacies we entertain except one: A thief is sure to get caught if he tries to sell a stolen collection. Nothing could be further from the truth. Thieves can not only "fence" old coins, but they know values and will "dicker" for the best prices. Most collectors or dealers are unsuspecting. The common approach is, "Bill Jones said you might be interested in these proof sets. . . ." Then the big fairy tale begins, and you can only assume that if this man is a friend of Bill Jones, this is sufficient introduction. One collector is played against the other.

The coin "fencing" may be done very shrewdly. The thief or "fence" is not stupid. He understands the psychology of the average man, and the desire of everyone to get a bargain — but not a big enough bargain to arouse suspicion. (Unfortunately, there is also a small minority of collectors and dealers who are not particularly anxious to determine the validity of the seller and his merchandise.) The "fence" is also careful not to cross state lines, and invite federal action.

Coin thieves may be divided into three categories: Common vandals or juveniles, thieves who accidentally find a collection while burglarizing a house, or a professional coin thief. The most dangerous of the three is the professional coin thief. He may operate alone or, more often, in conjunction with other professional thieves. His philosophy is different from that of the common vandal or juvenile. The latter, when apprehended, usually "spills the beans" and tells police officers everything, once he is caught with stolen merchandise. The "pro" tells nothing. He is an innocent bystander caught in a web of circumstances, and he banks heavily on the probability that you can't identify your coins in court. Now for the rude shock: Can you?

Before you throw up your hands and state emphatically, "Of course I can," back up and reflect for a few moments. Picture yourself in a court of law, before a jury. How do you know these proof sets are yours, or this gem set of nickels? Especially if all writing has been removed and new tags affixed to the folders and holders? What if several thousands of your individual coins have been placed in new envelopes, and the original description recopied by the thief? You might convince a jury of coin collectors by your identification of certain conditions and identification points on the coins, but what of a jury of laymen, especially with a sharp defense attorney attempting to cut every statement you make to ribbons?

This brings us to the principal point of this modest essay. How can I avoid being robbed, and how can I positively identify my numismatic material? Prevention, of course, is better than cure. A small dog with a loud bark is a time-honored burglar deterrent. Electrical "bugging" of doors and windows, using solenoids or relays to operate lights or bells is also excellent. The latter method is free of the physiological functions of the former. The experienced burglar works in darkness and silence. He cannot tolerate light and unexpected noise. A skillfully "bugged" house can throw thieves into complete panic. Electrical alarms may be designed to ring bells and turn on lights or sirens, to ring a bell in a neighbor's house, or even the police station. Such devices should be installed only by persons experienced in these techniques and familiar with standard safety codes.

But suppose you are robbed, what then? The first step is publicity. Tell the investigating police to co-operate fully with the newspapers, radio, and TV; also, notify these media yourself. Contact the publicity secretaries of all clubs and numismatic publications of which you are cognizant. Give the police and insurance company an itemized list with valuations. Describe as fully as possible the holders, folders, cases, etc., in which the stolen merchandise was housed. Do not make this list public. It can aid the thieves enormously in their "cover-up" operations, also it is not good policy to give the list to people such as dealers and news reporters for the same reason. Give these people more generalized descriptions of the missing items, such as "forty proof sets, 1950-1960." The police list would, of course, have these forty sets broken down into number of each date, type of holders, possible identification marks, etc.

Professional thieves are difficult to apprehend. Unless caught in the act, they can usually be brought to justice only by being arrested for some other offense, or by being caught disposing of the stolen merchandise. They are not so childish as to leave identifying marks such as fingerprints at the scene of the crime. Most states presume felony when the source of stolen goods cannot be accounted for by an arrested person, but who can prove that the stolen merchandise did not belong to a deceased father, uncle, or cousin, of the defendant? The thief has nothing to lose by lying and everything to gain.

Discouraging as it may seem, many of our legal procedures seem to be designed to protect the criminal rather than convict him. A shrewd thief and a clever attorney often sway juries toward acquittal or the misdemeanor offense of receiving stolen goods, especially if the jury foreman has just received a traffic ticket. The best weapon the prosecution has is positive identification.

Obvious identification marks will be removed, or the material discarded so use a combination of the following methods:

1. INVISIBLE INK. Marking inks are available which are invisible under white light, but fluoresce brilliantly under ultra-violet light. These inks are permanent and may be applied to roll wrappers, folders, or other paper base materials. On plastic holders, it should be applied inside the holder, as it might wear off plastic through handling. For roll identification, a further stratagem is to mark a small piece of paper and slip it between the coins of the roll.

2. HIDDEN IDENTIFICATION. Small slips of paper with the owner's A.N.A. number and name may be inserted inconspicuously somewhere in the pages and folders in current use. The laminated paper in some folders may be split, the identification tag inserted, and the split resealed.

3. PHOTOGRAPHS. Coins alone are practically impossible to identify. An actual photograph, preferably of both sides of the coin, is the only method by which a police laboratory can compile "points of identification," when your photographs are compared with those of confiscated coins. If you are not a photographer whose abilities and equipment are such that good work of this type can be produced, check around among your collector friends, or try to find a photographer who will do this type of work reasonably. Photograph your more valuable coins, or those with unusual marks or other points of identification, and make enlargements at least twice the diameter of the coin. A tiny mark, scratch, hairline, or planchet defect is faithfully and exactly reproduced, and can be as damning as a fingerprint.

Coin collection thefts are common and are increasing in proportion to the number of collectors and speculators. The professional thief has struck a new twentieth century bonanza in the perfect merchandise to steal: money itself, often worth its weight in gold, and most important, it is generally unidentifiable. Coins do not carry serial numbers.

Only the collector can stop this surge of crime. Know the people who offer you coins for sale. "Fences" can wring your heart and pocket-book while they explain about poor Uncle Oscar or Cousin Elmer who is dying of cancer and must liquidate his coin collection for hospital bills. There are many other related fairy tales, but this is typical. Report suspicious persons to the police.

No collection is too small or too large to attract thieves. Coin collection insurance is cheap and should be carried by all collectors. Contact your insurance agent, and be sure to insure with well established companies. Most policies are quite simple and may not require a complicated time-consuming itemization of everything you have.

NATIONAL COIN WEEK, 1961

National Coin Week, sponsored by the American Numismatic Association, is to be April 23 through April 30, this year.

Theme:

"Coins and Currency of Yesteryears"

The theme this year does not hinder anyone from participating, whether they collect varieties of coins or currency; odd and curious, foreign, type sets, rolls, restrikes, mint errors, gold, or even medals. The theme also does not limit any collector, be he a beginner or an "old timer" at the "game."

Your National Coin Week Chairman should be appointed as soon as possible. Get busy with the publicity planning, exhibit spaces and by all means alert the local club to the importance of the week.

Contest rules will be as last year. These will be mailed to all clubs about March 1. Plaques will be awarded to the highest ranking clubs or individuals in each division. Certificates will be given to each participant.

There are four classes which you must abide by for competition:

Class A - Clubs of 50 or more members

Class B - Clubs of 25 to 49 members

Class C - Clubs of less than 25 members

Individual Class - For all single entries

Let's all put our shoulders to the wheel and make this the largest and best National Coin Week.

Dolly-Maude Harris, this year's General Chairman of National Coin Week, is a nationally known floral design artist and owner of the University Florist in Austin, Texas. She is president of the Austin Coin Club, historian of the Texas Numismatic Association, Member No. 26559 of the A.N.A. Dolly-Maude, as she is known to all, began coin collecting in 1936. Organizer of two junior coin clubs in Austin, she is always willing to help young collectors along numismatic paths.

NCW's 1961 Vice Chairman is Carlton ("Fuller") Brush, an architect in independent practice in Austin, Texas, is a past president of the Austin Coin Club, member of Temple Coin Club and A.N.A. Member No. 35907. He started collecting cents in the 1920s but became an active collector in 1955 when he helped found the Austin club; his specialty is U. S. type sets.

"Fuller," as he is known, is a dedicated numismatist who spares neither time nor effort to give a hand to fellow collectors or juniors.

The 1961 Awards Chairman is Thomas McCrummen, Jr., whose home is in Austin, Texas where he lives with his wife and two boys, Tommy and Jimmy. An Assistant Vice President of Austin's American National Bank, he is a graduate of the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking at Southern Methodist University and is active in civic affairs. He is A.N.A. Member No. 25118 and a member of several numismatic groups, including the Texas Numismatic Association and the Austin Coin Club.

WASHINGTON MEDAL IN PLATINUM

One of the rarest medals in the world—the only one ever made of platinum by the United States Government—is a unique portrait of the nation's first President which is owned by Herbert Hoover, the thirty-first President. The medal, made of a solid pound of platinum, is the only one of its kind. It was struck from the master die of the official commemorative medal of the George Washington Bicentennial Commission and was presented to Mr. Hoover twenty-eight years ago, when he was Chairman of the Commission and its nationwide observance of the two hundredth anniversary of Washington's birth.

Mrs. Laura Gardin Fraser, noted medalist and sculptress who also has done medals for government agencies, the American Numismatic Society, and the National Sculptors Society, designed the platinum medal. Three inches in diameter, the medal contains enough precious platinum to make about one hundred and twenty wedding rings. Because of its uniqueness, its value is inestimable. But the platinum in it alone today is worth about $1,100, twice as much as the metal was worth when the medal was struck in 1932.

The striking of the medal at the U. S. Mint in Philadelphia on February 4, 1932 marked a metallurgical milestone. Platinum was selected for Mr. Hoover's medal because of its nobility, rich silvery color and untarnishable permanence. Great skill and extraordinary force was required in making it because of the metal's extreme hardness.

The late Charles Engelhard, president of Baker & Co. (now Engelhard Industries, Inc. of Newark, N. J.), the precious metals firm which donated the platinum for the medal, coöperated with the Philadelphia Mint in first striking an experimental medal in platinum from a smaller existing die before attempting to make the large Bicentennial Commission medal.

"The result," he reported, "was an enthusiastic interest."

Mrs. Fraser; Engelhard; Congressman Sol Bloom, Associate Director of the Bicentennial Commission, and R. J. Grant, Director of the Philadelphia Mint, witnessed the striking of the large medal at the Mint. Describing the reaction, Engelhard said: "After scrutinizing the medal as it came from the press in the Medal Room of the Philadelphia Mint, Mrs. Fraser expressed her complete satisfaction with its artistic success. She pointed out that the use of platinum retained without impairment all the finest details of the sculptor's art in plaster, retaining the design without need of oxidation or other artificial treatment in order to successfully carry out the work."

The medal, now in Mr. Hoover's Waldorf Towers office in New York, is still in perfect condition, its platinum sheen untarnished and the art work finely delineated. Mounted in blue velvet, the medal is in a special gilded frame on a marble stand which exposes both its sides.

The obverse shows George Washington in sharp profile with his name, birth date and bicentennial date. Mrs. Fraser's name is engraved under the portrait. The reverse has a symbolic figure of Liberty with the inscription: PROCLAIM LIBERTY THROUGHOUT ALL THE LAND.

A bronze plaque on the marble stand reads:

For the Good of Numismatics and the A.N.A.

THOUGHTS BY A FOREIGN OBSERVER

Issues of The Numismatist for the year 1960 have been exceptionally stimulating not only because of the fine array of numismatic articles, but because of the belated explosion of protests from the numismatic fraternity against the numismatic hierarchy. I use repeatedly the word "numismatic" because it is the correct one to describe a person who collects coins, medals, tokens, paper money, etc., for the sheer pleasure of possessing something rare and beautiful and from which so much history can be learned. It is an innate quality of humans to collect that which is not common and which is pleasing to the eye. Such things could be fine oil paintings, sculpture, books, jewelry, stamps, coins, clocks, old cars and so on.

It pleases the ego of a person to possess these things which makes for a much more pleasant purpose in life. It helps to remove the trite and commonplace from our already burdened and hackneyed existence. Therefore, the person who collects the articles related to money, for the beauty, relaxation and comfort it gives in life, should be referred to as a "numismatist" — no one else should have the privilege of bearing that title.

Anyone else having a similar relationship but whose purpose is not to add recreation to his life, but only to make a "fast shekel," is a merchant because his only aim is to make money. Making money is the second oldest profession in the world and probably the first honorable one. There is nothing wrong with making money. Whether we like it or not, we have to earn money in order to exist. A money merchant is not a numismatist, however, because he does not engage in numismatics for the love of the hobby. He caters to the wishes of the true collector by supplying him with his needs. But lately he has created a desire in an increasing number of suppliers, or better still, hucksters, to enter the game and wave magic "nickels" and small date cents before the noses of thousands of new collectors who entered the fraternity in a true numismatic manner, but for many of whom it does not quite seem consistent to pay five bucks for brand-new 1960 cent.

It has also been stimulating because I have been able to correlate the human eccentricities of today's coin hoarders and so-called collectors with the eccentricities of literary and dramatic characters — and there have been fictional characters truly representative of the human race.

Where I live in Venezuela, I usually receive my copy of The Numismatist and several other coin publications one to two months after they have been mailed, so it cannot be said that I trade fast on the basis of the advertisements appearing therein. I am like a spectator at a chess game. A spectator can usually see more moves in the game than the actual players. I buy what I like for my collection when and as it is available. I have also read the articles appearing in all of these publications from a coin dealer buying rolls of coins in order to sell them piece-meal to collectors, presenting his side of the story to suit his interests. I can understand a dealer buying rolls of coins in order to sell them piece-meal to collectors. But to advertise the sale of rolls for "investment" reminds me of the sugar and tire hoarders of the last war. It was disgusting and unfair to the retail consumer.

In the June, 1957 Numismatist Mr. Bradfield was kind enough to publish a letter from me entitled "Has Coin Collecting Gone Commercial?" I received several letters from elderly collectors expressing their concurrence. The ten year business boom period has no doubt contributed to the tremendous increase in collectors. Perhaps what we now need is a good old-fashioned recession to pop the sacks of coin hoarders back to earth.

Another thing which stimulated me (adversely) was the lack of appreciation of some members of the A.N.A. to the recent membership directory. These same people, no doubt, are not true collectors or they would be thankful for all they get for the mere five bucks annual subscription and membership in the Association. These same people will pay five to forty bucks for a recent cent or "nickel," but they are still getting twelve issues of The Numismatist with an occasional membership directory thrown in for five bucks a year! What do some people want? They cater to and accept inflated coin prices, yet gripe when the A.N.A. officers and directors who work for nothing or mere peanuts put out the best directory they can with the money they have available. I would like to see what many of these complainers, if A.N.A. directors, would demand for salary. You have the same people in office because they are the true workers of this science and hobby, and because they are content with receiving no salary or one which is token, and nothing more.

I would make membership in the A.N.A. subject to presentation of an article or thesis on some phase of numismatics. The persons who complied with this requirement, and passed, would then constitute a true numismatic fraternity. Alas, of the present 20,000 A.N.A. members, I'm afraid less than half could or would comply. The rest would cuss our Association and probably go back to playing the stock market, horse racing and slot machines, where they belong.

In closing, I would like the A.N.A. to accept my check for $7.00 to cover the following: 1961 subscription - $6.00, 1960 directory - $1.00.

I suggest, or make a motion, that the annual dues be raised to $6.00. Anyone of the 20,000 members who cannot afford one dollar more a year for A.N.A. membership has no business being a member.

Submitted after due reflection and consideration. — PETER FRANQUET, A.N.A. No. 18112, Apartado 79, Barcelona, Venezuela

Book Review

Latvijas Naudas (Latvian Monies) by Aleksandrs Platbarzdis, privately printed by the author 1960 Sollentuna 2, Tallasv. 14 (Sweden), illustrated, 80 pages, soft paper cover, $7.00. Limited issue of 150 numbered copies.

Latvijas Naudas is printed in Latvian; its author is an authority in Baltic numismatics. It contains the full description, history and facts of all Latvian coins and bank notes. Also included are city and army pieces, issued between Nov. 18, 1918 and March 25, 1941.

Included in the publication are sixteen very clear plates, illustrating each coin and bank note from both sides, as well as watermark enlargements. Some of these pictures are appearing for the first time in any publication. The plates are worthwhile also for those who do not understand the language. — EDGAR BERZINS

Notes & Queries

Iowa Convention

The Davenport convention of the Iowa Numismatic Association was successful, with all bourse tables sold, banquet tickets over subscribed and exhibits declared to be "tops." Dr. John Davenport, author of several books on dollars and crown size pieces, related his experiences in European museums.

Central States Convention Medal

The Northwest Coin Club is host to the Central States Numismatic Society convention in Minneapolis April 28-30, 1961. The convention committee has authorized the advance sale of a commemorative golden bronze token for this event. One side bears the St. Paul skyline, showing the courthouse, the First National Bank building and the capitol dome, as well as other buildings. The Minneapolis side depicts the well known Rand and Foshay Towers, the First National Bank building and others. In view of our inter-city rivalry, the club hesitates to designate obverse or reverse. Collectors may make their own choices in this matter, as both sides are equally important. Tokens are sold in pairs, $1.10, postpaid. Send check or money order to Mrs. Carmen Baum, Medal Chmn., Northwest Coin Club, 617 Eighth Avenue, No., South St. Paul, Minnesota.

North Carolina Clubs Hold Convention

Over three hundred registered at the second annual convention of the North Carolina Coin Clubs Association October 7 and 8 at the George Vanderbilt Hotel, Asheville, N. C. No count was made of those who viewed the exhibits but the registrars estimate over four hundred were present. B. C. Sayers, Jr. of Johnson City, Tenn. conducted the auction. There were thirty-one bourse tables.

The noncollector had plenty to do. The Asheville auditorium next door to the hotel had an excellent play and an opera. There were sight-seeing tours to the Biltmore estate and other scenic points in and around this beautiful mountain resort and of course the ladies took advantage of the nearby shops.

At the business meeting the following officers were elected to serve for 1961: J. T. Pheagin, president; E. Plonski, first vice president; James W. Jackson, Jr., second vice president; J. W. B. Bason, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. J. W. B. Bason corresponding secretary.

S. W. Freeman, Advertising Manager of The Numismatist, was a guest at the business meeting and served as one of the exhibit judges. "He made a lot of friends in North Carolina and we will be looking forward to meeting more of the A.N.A. officers in Atlanta, Ga., in '61," Mrs. Bason said.

The convention ended Saturday night with a banquet in the East Ball room with an attendance of seventy. The highlight of the evening was a humorous talk by C. W. Phillips, director of public relations, at Womans College of the University of North Carolina.

Best in show was awarded to Dr. Conway A. Bolt. Other award win-

"I don't doubt it's valuable, sir, but so far we've never had a call for a Plutonian ten digma piece."

ners were, Walter B. Carpenter, miscellaneous; Sherman G. Whetstone, silver; George Walton, gold; and Paul Whisonant, currency. The third annual NCCCA convention will be held in Durham, N. C. in 1961.

Off Metal Coins and The Federal Government

Dear Sir:

It seems a shame that the Government should come into the field of numismatics at this point and tell the collector that he can collect only the coins that the Treasury Dept. says is O.K. On what grounds can the Government tell the collector that the coin that he possesses is not legal. Certainly the collector did not mint the coin, and as a collector he has every right to have an unusual coin in his collection.

The Government claims that it is illegal to have a coin that has been struck on metal not authorized by the Congress of the United States. Then, is it true that Congress authorized the striking of a copper cent in 1943, or a steel cent in 1944? Has Congress authorized the issuing of currency with the face of one denomination and another denomination on the back of the same bill? What about the coins that are in the Smithsonian Institution? Are they only authorized coins? I am certain that they possess coins that the collector would be tempted to give his right arm for, but the collector hasn't the right to have these. Just what fun would the collector have if all the errors made by the mint were to be sent back to the Government. No, I cannot go along with that way of thinking on this matter.

I have in my possession a cent struck on silver, not plated with zinc or anything else, but struck on a silver planchet. I found this cent in a bag of cents from the Philadelphia Mint. I have been offered over $1,000 for it, and I refused it simply because it is the only one known, at this time, that was struck in Philadelphia.

It is, without a doubt, a very rare coin as it is the only one out of a production of over 262,025,000 cents struck in Philadelphia. I would like to hear from some of our numismatic friends who practice law, as to what a collector could do in order to retain or regain the coin in question.

Oklahoma-Kansas

Convention

The forty dealers and twenty-five exhibitors at the Oklahoma-Kansas Numismatic Association convention in Hutchinson, October 21-23, were very complimentary about this most successful affair. Exhibit winners were, U. S. coins — first, Frank and Mrs. Silva, Shidler; second, Howard Estes, Larned; third, Chester H. Wilson, Wichita; U. S. paper money — first, Richard W. Cooper, Hutchinson; second, R. A. Ferguson, Hutchinson; and third, Lewis M. Reagan, Wichita; ancient and Biblical coins — first, LaMarr and Mrs. Davis, Edna; second, Roy Osborne, Wichita; third, Frank and Mrs. Silva; foreign coins — first, Lee Billingsly, Hutchinson; second, P. K. Anderson, Gotebo; third, H. L. Salisbury, Wichita; foreign paper money — first, Lee Billingsly; second, H. L. Salisbury; Canadian coins and paper money — Mrs. Raymond Billingsly; second, C. Wesley Edwards, Hutchinson; general — first, William J. Dale, Edmond; second, J. Jennings Smith, Enid; third, A. H. Erwin, Ponca City.

William J. Dale won the "sweepstakes" award with his display of Oklahoma "numismata," which included merchants and trading post tokens, currency and scrip of the five civilized Indian Nations, clearing house certificates and bank scrip of the panic of 1907, statehood semicentennial medals, etc.

Members of the Boeing Coin Club, Wichita, made a special club display, and the 1913 Liberty head five cent piece belonging to J. V. McDermott of South Milwaukee, Wisc., was another special display.

Association officers for 1961 were elected as follows: president, W. H. Elliott, Tulsa; vice president, Glenn Koester, Wichita; one-year trustees, C. R. Ross, Okmulgee and W. S. Bailey, Jr., Tulsa; two-year trustee, Earl Siebert, Hutchinson. — MRS. RAYMOND BILLINGSLEY, Sec.

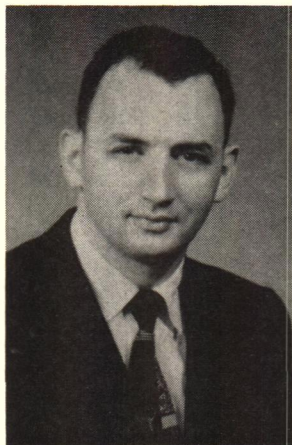

Rochette Joins

Numismatic News Staff

Chester (Chet) L. Krause, publisher of Numismatic News, Iola, Wis., announces another in a series of moves designed to keep his fast-growing organization in the numismatic forefront. He has appointed Edward C. Rochette, who joined the staff on November 14, 1960, production manager, increasing to nine the number of full time employees. Of these, four are members of the A.N.A.

Rochette and his family are moving to Iola from Worcester, Mass., where he has been on the staff of Times

Edward Rochette

Publishing Co. Formerly editor of the labor relations publication, New Outlook, Rochette is experienced in all phases of editorial assignments.

An artist in his own right, Rochette's cartoons have long appeared in Numismatic News. His work has also appeared in numerous other national trade publications and in books on technical subjects.

A former student of both Washington and Clark Universities, Ed Rochette's numismatic activities cover a wide field. He has been secretary of the Worcester (Mass.) County Numismatic Society, a past officer of the Tri-County Coin Club and a member of the New England Numismatic Association.

Ed's own collection specialty is off and unusual American coinage. He has won numerous exhibit prizes. His greatest satisfaction lies in the help he has been able to give young people in taking their first steps as numismatists. As a merit badge counsellor to the Boy Scouts of America, that opportunity has been provided on a generous scale.

Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs Conventions, Fall and Spring

The officers of Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs extend thanks to the Dayton Coin Club and the Clark County Coin Club, Springfield, for the very fine convention which they sponsored at the Biltmore Hotel in Dayton, November 4-6. James Bird was the General Chairman.

Unusually excellent exhibits were judged by Ray Byrne, Pittsburgh, Dr. Jack Litman, Akron, and C. C. Shroyer, Fremont. Awards were announced by D. Wayne Johnson, Master of Ceremonies, at the banquet. The beautiful trophy for Best-in-Show went to Don Becker, Cleveland, for his exhibit of U. S. coins (first place winner in its class, also).

First prizes of bronze-colored medals, engraved FIRST AWARD and designating the classification and convention, and suitably inscribed ribbons with medallions attached for second and third places, were awarded for other exhibits as follows: U. S. coins — second, Fred Smith, Dayton, and third, Everett Snapp, St. Paris; foreign coins — first, Irving Moskovitz, Detroit, second, Ernest Cooke, Cleveland, and third, John Barber, Springfield; paper money — first, George Hatie, Grosse Pointe, and second, Kenneth Ferguson, Cleveland; odd and curious money — first, Nick Parker, second Susan Cooke, and third, Ernest F. Cooke, all of Cleveland. The bourse was lively, as was the auction conducted by James Kelly of Dayton.

The Spring Show will be in the Webster Hall Hotel, Pittsburgh, May 12-14, and the 1961 fall convention is scheduled in the Statler Hilton Hotel in Cleveland, October 13-15. Applications for membership in this active and growing organization may be obtained from the Secretary, Laura M. Caddy, 15101 Merimeade Drive, Cleveland 11, Ohio. Other officers are: Homer Swanson, Sharon, Pa., president; Tom Williams, first vice president, Youngstown, O.; Joseph J. Cracium, second vice president, Warren, O., and Rev. Albert J. Klein, Newton Falls, O., treasurer. Suggestions for making Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs the best regional organization will be carefully considered. — LAURA M. CADDY, Sec.

Michigan's Fall Convention

Attendance at the 1960 fall convention of the Michigan State Numismatic Society topped the ten thousand figure, with voluntary registrations exceeding seven hundred and fifty. Seventy dealers occupied bourse space. Coin and Currency, Inc., conducted the auction.

For his fifteen case exhibit of gold coins, Irving M. Moskowitz received the Best in Show trophy. Seven first place trophies and ribbons for other awards were respectively, as follows: U.S. Coins, George D. Hatie, Irving M. Moskowitz, John R. Drazen; U.S. Paper Money, George D. Hatie, Maxwell E. Brail, Dr. Frank A. Limpert; Foreign Paper Money; James Kirkwood. Ancient Coins, George D. Hatie; Foreign Coins, Eleanor Beebe, Miss Bobbie Burns (eleven years old); Gold Coins, Irving M. Moskowitz; Miscellaneous, Harry M. Lessin, Irving M. Moskowitz, George D. Hatie.

At the business session, Ben Stocker was elected president; P. H. Frans, first vice president; Wilma Deane Roethke, second vice president. Nedra Gonzales continues in her nonelective capacity as secretary-treasurer.

The ladies were guests of the Detroit Coin Club at the Friday evening bingo games and the Saturday afternoon luncheon. The banquet Saturday evening was presided over by Ben Stocker as President of both the Detroit Coin Club and Michigan State Numismatic Society. An interesting and enlightening talk was given by Rear Admiral Oscar H. Dodson. The exhibit awards were presented at the banquet by Awards Chairman Paul J. Landry.

All were saddened by the death of General Chairman Paul F. Schilling during the convention as the result of a massive heart attack. The success of the Convention resulted primarily from his advanced planning and his diligent and continued efforts.

Chicago Coin Club 500th Meeting Medal

To meet popular demand, the Chicago Coin Club is having one hundred sets-of-three of its 500th meeting medal struck in aluminum. The three medals will be anodized to simulate the ones previously issued in bronze, silver and gold, and are priced at $7.50 per set. The initial striking of silver and gold medals has been exhausted, but some are still available in antique finish bronze at $5.00 each. Orders may be sent, with remittance, to the chairman of the medal committee, M. Vernon Sheldon, 451 Wrightwood Ave., Chicago 14.

Mint Sets of 1960 on Sale

Orders for uncirculated 1960 coins in sets only are now being accepted. Orders will be mailed in the sequence in which they are received. The coins will continue on sale until the supply is exhausted but not later than December 31, 1961.

The purchase price of $2.40 per set includes handling charges, postage and insurance. The price is the same whether the coins are purchased over the counter at the Treasury Department or mailed to any place in the United States and its possessions.

A set consists of a half dollar, quarter, dime, nickel, and cent, other than commemorative and proof coins, struck at the mints in Denver and Philadelphia during the year. Each set therefore contains ten coins with a face value of $1.82.

Orders from any single purchaser up to a maximum of eighty sets will be accepted. However, if the demand is so heavy that the supply appears in danger of exhaustion, the quantity furnished each applicant may be limited in an endeavor to make an equitable distribution of the available coins. Coin sets are not returnable in exchange for a cash refund.

Uncirculated coin sets contain coins which were minted for general circulation purposes. They are minted on high-speed presses, moved along conveyors, run through counting machines, and packed and shipped several thousand per bag. Although only the best uncirculated coins are used in the sets, the Treasury cannot guarantee to furnish coins that are entirely free from blemishes.

Mail orders should be addressed to the Treasurer of the United States, Cash Division (UC), Washington 25, D. C., accompanied by a remittance ($2.40 per set) in the form of a money order, certified personal or bank cashier's check payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States. Please do not send cash.

To Henry Clay "for his character as a statesman and as a citizen"

COMPROMISE OF 1850 MEDAL

By

GEORGIA S. CHAMBERLAIN, A.N.A. No. 23480

THE citizens of New York gave to Henry Clay a handsome gold medal on the occasion of the Compromise of 1850 "in respect for his character as a statesman and as a citizen." Gleason's Pictorial Drawing-Room Companion, Boston, on Saturday, July 3, 1852, paid tribute in its pages to the Great

Thomas Dow Jones, 1811-1881, later famous for his Lincoln monument at Columbus, Ohio, is given credit on the medal as sculptor. Possibly he prepared a medallion from the Prudens bust from which C. C. Wright, 1796-1854, cut the dies.

The reverse design of the wreath symbolizing the agricultural aspects

Compromiser at the time of his death, and with the article published wood engravings of the obverse and reverse of this medal.

Interesting information about the medal given in Gleason's is the following: "It is an expensive and beautiful tribute. The cost of cutting the die was $1600, the gold for the medal cost $400, the silver casing $75, the design and incidental expenses cost $400 more. The dies were cut by C. C. Wright, and are taken from Prudens' bust of Henry Clay in his 73d year."

of Kentucky, corn, tobacco, grain and the rose surround the eighteen-line history of Clay. The reverse was designed by William Walcutt, 1819-1882 or 1885, another Ohio sculptor. Walcutt was the sculptor of the statue of Oliver Hazard Perry now in Gordon Park, Cleveland, Ohio on the shore of Lake Erie.

dollars in leather case with red velvet lining. According to the S. H. and H. Chapman catalog of the sale of Charles I. Bushnell's coins and medals, June, 1882, this medal "has brought from $19 to $33.50 in sales." In the Bushnell sale it went for $16.00.

It is customary to think that American medallion art flowered at the time of Augustus St. Gaudens and Victor Brenner. Yet a half century earlier Charles Cushing Wright was employing excellent sculptors to produce models in strong relief from which he cut superb dies in steel by hand.

RARE NOTE

A $50.00 National Bank note, First Charter period, unknown in the all important catalog of Paper Money of the United States, second edition, by Robert Friedberg, was discovered by Michael Kolman, Jr., owner of the Federal Coin Exchange, while attending the Boston convention of the American Numismatic Association. This $50.00 note, Series of 1875, Broadway Bank of New York, red with scallops, bearing the signatures of John Allison as Register of the Treasury and A. U. Wyman as Treasurer of the United States, has been denoted as Friedberg No. 444-A.

The team of Allison-Wyman operated for eleven months and twenty-nine days only, from July 1, 1876 to June 30, 1877. The vignette at left shows George Washington crossing the Delaware River; that at right depicts Washington kneeling in prayer. The reverse portrays the embarkation of the Pilgrims. The U.S. Treasury number in the upper right hand corner is A82152. The general condition of this rarity is very good to fine.

In the early days of the Civil War, when there was a great scarcity of silver currency, and before the issue of small notes, known first as postal and later as fractional currency, about all the small change obtainable consisted of postage stamps, which, being adhesive, were most troublesome when used in that way. Many merchants had little metal cases made which were about the size of the copper cent. In each case would be placed a postage stamp, the face covered by a piece of mica, and on the back the advertisement of the merchant. These passed current at the value of the stamp contained, and are known as encased postage stamps. — ANS Exhibition Catalogue, 1914.

Numismatic Vignettes

■ Caveat emptor is surely the guiding precept of some advertisers of coins today. A comparison of a few ads in the September and November issues of one numismatic publication provides surprising vagaries of some advertisers within a two-month period. "Prices will be higher this Fall" in bold type urged us to buy 1952 proof sets at $22.50, or the nine sets of 1952-1960 at $86.00. Two months later the same advertiser offers the same proof sets at $20.00 and $75.00, respectively. Another offers "to help collectors buy on a rising market and protect themselves at today's prices" by tendering 1960 small date proof sets at $40.00 and 1960P nickels at $5.00 per roll. Under the caption "for your gift items" in November, he has the same proof set at $20.00 and the 1960P nickels at $3.25 a roll. A set of Franklin half dollars, 1948-1959 (27 rolls) at $1,000 is "a wonderful investment" in September; while it has become a "super special" two months later at $950.00 (and a roll of 1955 "Bugs Bunny" halves will be included now as a bonus). There was a small ad in September which listed only 1960 small date proof sets, at $50.00 each. Perhaps he sold out, for we couldn't find him in the November issue. You can find other examples of this "let the purchaser beware" warning, but you won't find many of them in advertisements of the better known and long established dealers.

■ "All of which proves that when it comes to inflating the currency, the modern counterfeiter just doesn't stand a chance against the modern central bank issuing bank notes without gold backing." Thus ends a chapter in Money of Their Own, by M. T. Bloom, now available in paper back form by Ballantine Books at 50¢. A factual, highly interesting (especially to numismatists) and educational book which we recommend for enjoyable reading.

■ Apropos to the month of January, and to the closing of one year and the opening of another, is the illustration of a Campanian stater of the third Century B.C. Its obverse is graced by the beardless head of the Roman deity Janus, god of gates and doors. Representation with two opposite faces is supposed to symbolize the two sides of a door, hence the beginning and ending. It is fitting that the first month of the year — the time when one year ends and another begins — be named after the mythological god of doors. May the opening of a new year signal good health, happiness and prosperity to all readers of The Numismatist.

■ Recently we walked over to Chicago's Grant Park for a short visit with an old friend. There was no conversation, but it was stimulating to ponder a few moments on what Bela Pratt's Alexander Hamilton would say about today's numismatic and financial situation if he could talk. On this statue one may read this maxim of the sagacious statesman: "The established rules of morality and justice are applicable to nations as well as to individuals." Opposition to paper money was almost a fanaticism with Hamilton, as evidenced by his statement that "the wisdom of the Government will be shown in never trusting itself with the use of so seducing and dangerous an expedient." Would he consider it a "wise" government which issues ninety-three cents in paper of every dollar in circulation? Would he understand why a set of the eight coins struck in the year of his death is valued at around $15,000 (in paper money, of course) today? — GLENN S.

PONY EXPRESS RIDERS MEDAL

This bronze medal, 2¼" in diameter, in heavy relief and weighing just under four ounces, was manufactured by the U. S. Mint for the National Pony Express Centennial Association as authorized by a special act of congress. They were especially made for presentation to the just under a thousand riders who participated in the July 19 to 28, 1960, reenactment of the Pony Express. None of these medals was sold, but approximately thirty were withheld for deposit in appropriate libraries, historical societies, museums, etc., in the eight Pony Express states and Washington, D. C.

"Over a year ago, when plans were being made by the National Pony Express Centennial Association for the centennial reenactment of the Pony Express," said Waddell F. Smith, Association president, "promises were made to the horsemen and many riding organizations whereby the participating riders would not only be presented a Bible as they were a hundred years ago, but would also be given a beautiful and distinctive medal. Since the riders were all volunteers, it was felt that they should have the finest possible medal."

Decimal Coinage in Ireland — A committee appointed by the Irish Minister of Industry and Commerce in 1953 to consider "the desirability of establishing a metric system of weights and measures and a decimal system of coinage" has recommended the adoption of the metric system of weights and measures as the sole statutory system for use in Ireland. The committee was of the opinion that this could not be done in less than fifteen years without adding enormously to the inconvenience and cost. The Government, accepting in principle the adoption of the system and indicating an approximate date not later than twenty-five years hence when it should become the sole legal system, should establish a special agency to implement the decision and, in the meantime, conduct propaganda, revise school curricula, consult with similar Northern Ireland or British agencies, examine costs and compensation, and provide a general advisory service.

The committee further reported that the advantages of a decimalization of the coinage would not in themselves outweigh the expense and inconvenience that would be involved, but if the metric system of weights and measures should come into force, a decimal system of coinage should also be adopted. The special agency should advise on the appropriate time for decimalization and should supply up-to-date information on the cost of converting or replacing machines constructed to function with the existing coins.

Five members of the committee did not favor a change in either system except in conjunction with Great Britain and Northern Ireland. A system with a major unit equivalent to 10 shillings and divisible into 100 cents is regarded as the most suitable unit for Ireland, but the committee recognized that the adoption of a different system by Great Britain might necessitate a change in this view.

EARL A. COATSWORTH, A.N.A. NO. 4805

Earl A. Coatsworth, 56, 1717 Yorktown Place, Wilksburg, Pa., died October 30. Assistant vice president and manager of the Mellon National Bank and Trust Company branch at Wilmerding, he was a Methodist, a member of the American Numismatic Association and the Western Pennsylvania Numismatic Society, and Tyrian Lodge 612, AF and AM. Surviving are his widow, Mildred; a daughter, Vera Lou; his mother, Mrs. Nelly Coatsworth; three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Garnic and Mrs. Grace Dixon, both of California, Pa., and Mrs. Clara Lochinger, Brownsville, Pa.

One of the best known numismatists of his area, he was regarded as a student of numismatics who held the esteem of all who knew him. He served four times as president of the Western Pennsylvania Numismatic Society and was on the reception committee at the 1935 A.N.A. convention. — WWW, RTF

LEWIS A. MOORMAN, A.N.A. NO. 25392

Lewis A. Moorman, 49, a prominent coin and antique dealer in Berkeley, Cal., suffered a heart attack and died on Thanksgiving Day. He was born in Minnesota but had been a resident of Berkeley for 25 years.

He was a member of several local and regional numismatic organizations in California, the Antique Dealers Association of Northern California, the Berkeley Lions Club and the Berkeley Lodge of Elks. The Oakland Tribune paid tribute to him in an editorial on November 26, from which the following is quoted: "If his chief interest was numismatics, his first love was humanity, for he always recognized that the fraternity of collectors was but a unit in the brotherhood of man."

Survivors include his widow, Grace, who was associated with him in the coin and antique business; a son, John, of Berkeley; a daughter, Mrs. Janet Roher of Oceanside; and one sister and four brothers. — GBS

PAUL F. SCHILLING, A.N.A. NO. 21628

Those attending the Michigan State Numismatic Society Fall Convention were saddened by the death of the General Chairman, Paul F. Schilling. Mr. Schilling suffered a heart attack Saturday afternoon during the Convention and passed away at Mount Carmel Hospital a few hours later. He was an accountant, 47 years of age and resided at 16554 Trinity Ave., in Detroit.

Paul Schilling was a nationally known numismatist, specializing in United States coins. He had a great love for coins, worked diligently in all numismatic activities and was always willing to aid and encourage other collectors. He attended substantially all of the major numismatic conventions throughout the country and frequently had a convention bourse table. He was a long time member of the American Numismatic Association and numerous other numismatic organizations.

Mr. Schilling was formerly president of both Michigan State Numismatic Society and Detroit Coin Club. At the time of his death, he was Secretary of Detroit Coin Club and a member of the Board of Governors of both Central States Numismatic Society and Michigan State Numismatic Society. He has been general chairman of all of the Michigan State Numismatic Society conventions held in Detroit and had been selected as general chairman of the American Numismatic Association convention scheduled for Detroit in August, 1962.

He is survived by his widow, Marjorie; his children, Paul, Mark and Marjorie; his mother, Mary; and his brother, Charles. — GDH

THERE'S ONE IN EVERY PRECINCT

By

S. W. FREEMAN, LM 366

I AM in front of Joe's pool hall today, when a guy ankles over and asks if I am a native. Now this gink isn't looking like too solid a citizen, so I figure he is about to put the bite on me for the price of a cue at the Snooker table. I likewise am being without lettuce, tin, or other means of cue fare, but if this guy does not know I am a native he is also not knowing I am an unemployed native and that the cliff dwellers on this side of the main drag know that my status remains such for two years, come Michaelmas. Moreover does he not know that chits from them are harder to come by than ducats to a coronation.

So I tell this individual that my nativity took place not six blocks away, and if he is being without friends I would oblige him in a friendly game of Nine Ball. This he tells me he cannot do because his offtime is spent looking for old or odd coins, in fact this he is doing since public school No. 9 days. Now I happen to be knowing that P.S. No. 9 is in a part of town where, in those days, a gold handled whip was set in the socket of each surrey, so maybe this odd wad is more of a pigeon than I first think. I see this gent isn't playing my game so maybe I am smart to play his and I ask what gives with this coin racket. He replies that coin collecting is not a racket but a hobby, and for the next hour he is telling me what "is" a coin collector and if one collects long enough he might become a Numismatist. This it seems, is a Joe in the know about dough, both the hard and green stuff. I learn that more than considerable of these belong to the A.N.A.; sort of like joining the Elks I figure. While we stand there he tells me about his collection. This guy is speaking about double eagles like they were beer checks, and double saw-bucks and "C" notes like they were left over script from the thirties.

Even after so long a time this character still has not made his pitch, see what I mean, but I play it cool and during a pause between V-nickels and what comes next, I move in and ask why he is wanting natives. This joker now tells me he carries a craving to go through coins saved by some housewives, usually found in sugar bowls, coffee cans, or the like, pushed back to a dark corner of a pantry shelf. This craving it seems likens to a stumble bum's yen for cold suds on a hot summer P.M.

How I am now feeling, you should well know, what with my sitting pigeon being a goose on the loose, no less. So I ask for one more of his ready-rolleds and the use of his "flame thrower," in preparation of brushing this jerk off, but good. Then all of a sudden like, I remember what's in Lottie's top drawer, and likewise remember what Lottie says she'll do if she ever catches my pinkies in that drawer. Lottie mans the mangle at Mannies Snow White Laundry, she's my wife you know. Well now here I stand with still no pewter for pool, it's just two o'clock and the little woman doesn't show till five, so if this loon wants to moon over Lottie's "luker," I figure he by so doing might sweeten my pot by four bits or even a skin, and I am knowing where the key to the drawer is also.

Right here I elevate this gink back to pigeon rating and though I'm as nervous as a bird dog with two noses between two covies of quail, I ask casual like, what I might be expecting should I lead him to such a situation as he mentions. He says this would depend on what he might come by in the process of looking over whatever situation I take him to, but even if he finds nothing my time he is willing to well pay for. I see by the glint in this pigeon's eye he would rather sift through minted silver than sink a pick in a mother lode of the same.

Fifteen minutes later we sit at my kitchen table with Lottie's pennies, nickels and dimes in a pile, larger than somewhat, at the end where sits my guest. At a glance I see he knows what he's looking for by the way he handles the chips; most he is dropping on a slush pile without pause, some he turns over before he drops them. While he is looking he is also talking. I learn the buffalo on our jits isn't a buffalo at all but a bison. He doesn't want just any bison but only ones with three legs; boy, is this guy nuts. If this guy hadn't let me in on it I might go to my grave not knowing that some eagles are having eight feathers in their tails while others get by with seven, think of that. What else I learn is that the first U.S. mint issues were made from a silver teapot belonging to one Martha C. Washington, who spent the rest of her life steeping her tea in a tankard. George didn't seem to worry, so why should I after one hundred and sixty-eight years. What does worry me is the size of the slush pile which is now far larger than the first pile and still my chum hasn't shown particular interest in anything.

Finally a dime is pushed over to one side and out comes a double lens peeker from the pigeon's pocket. This dime gets the same going over as a diamond to be hocked in Uncle Ben's Friendly Pawn Shop. He takes a quick gander at the remaining coins, pushes them over with the dross and stands up. Without waiting a minute or batting a peeper, he offers me five bucks for this dime, just because it's got a "D" or something on the back of it. I say, as a dodge, that a coin as old as this should be worth more. He says the coin is not as old as I am, it being minted in 1916, and he hands it to me to check. I see he is on the level with the date and after all five skins is five skins, so I say if he makes it five bucks and a dime I deal. The dime's for Lottie you know; I wouldn't want to pilfer her pot of one thin dime. Any way she just might be toting a tally on the total.

We are now back in front of Joe's pool hall and I am telling this chump I am pleased to make his acquaintance and I am in a fidget to get to the Snooker table. He says, looking at his watch, that the feeling is mutual and if I care to play a game or two of French pool he might have the time.

As he chalks his cue, this benefactor asks shall we wager a buck on the game, just to make it interesting. I tell him to make it light on himself and to show my friendly feeling I spot him the ten ball.

Well as you know, I shoot a pretty fast stick, but this gent makes me look like a Pony Leaguer trying out for the Yankees. I lose five games and five skins in about as many minutes. For me to be holding five Washington engravings for so short a time is hard to take, but when this sharpie racks his cue and in vacating the premises calls over his shoulder to me, "so long pigeon, see you around," then I really burn.

SOUTH AFRICAN DECIMALIZATION

Although all banking business in South Africa after February 14, 1961, will be conducted in rands and cents, the country's complete switch over to the new currency will require about two years. An estimated 150,000 coin machines must be converted, with those used by the Government, railways and Provincial administrations accommodated earlier.

USS ENTERPRISE MEDAL

The USS Enterprise, launched September 24, 1960, is the world's largest ship and the first nuclear powered aircraft carrier. This significant milestone in the Atomic Age, has been appropriately commemorated by the authorized medal now being released. This medal has been struck by the Medallic Art Company of New York from designs created by the art staff of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Co., Newport News, Va., and executed in bas-relief by the New York sculptor Ralph Menconi.

The USS Enterprise medal is being distributed nationally by the Coin and Currency Institute of New York and California, and is available in bronze or silver, each a handsome 2½ inches in diameter. It bears the same obverse as a much smaller medal with different reverse which was given as a token to those present at the actual launching ceremony. Each medal will be furnished with a descriptive leaflet with additional information concerning the event, medalist, and sculptor.

Obverse design depicts an impressive side view of the USS Enterprise, featuring the over-all length, and bears the legend WORLD'S LARGEST SHIP and FIRST NUCLEAR POWERED AIRCRAFT CARRIER.

On the reverse is the official insignia of the U.S. Navy surmounting a decorative scroll with additional inscription concerning date and place of launching. Of further interest is the handsome seal of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Co., builders of this and many other modern vessels for the U.S. Navy. Although built in Newport News in the largest private shipyard, our newest aircraft carrier is being made of materials and equipment supplied by hundreds of American manufacturers.

Some indication of the tremendous size of the Enterprise is given by the fact that the flight deck consists of an area of nearly four and a half acres, the length of this deck being equal to five city blocks. When commissioned, there will be facilities for the accommodation of 4,600 officers and men. Two and a half years were consumed in construction up to the time of launching, and another year will be required in outfitting before she is commissioned.

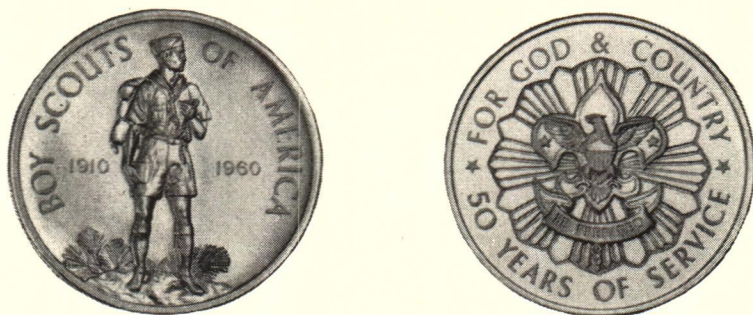

The silver medals are struck in fine silver and will be limited to five thousand serially numbered pieces. Bronze medals will be available in sufficient quantities to meet the expected demand. These medals will be available approximately December 11.

BOY SCOUTS GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY MEDAL

A sterling silver medal marking the golden anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, 1910-1960, has just been issued by Heraldic Art as No. 5 in its continuing series of half-dollar diameter commemorative medallions. Quantity struck for this particular issue (7,500 sterling silver pieces) is somewhat larger than customary, reflecting special interest among Scouts, those interested in BSA activities, subscribers and others who wished additional pieces for gift use.

Obverse of the Boy Scout medallion features the standing figure of a Scout, symbolizing the more than 28,000,000 former members who have gained in self reliance, moral stature and citizenship by participation in the respected and beloved movement in its fifty years of existence. Legend: BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA / 1910 / 1960.

The reverse is a representation of the Scout emblem surmounting a star of honor. The Boy Scout badge is derived directly from the original Baden-Powell design, in which the fleur-de-lis represents a compass point arrowhead for North, suggesting that the Scout be as dependable as a compass, and should point the way as surely. The American eagle distinguishes the national design from similar badges around the world. Legend surrounding: * FOR GOD AND COUNTRY * 50 YEARS OF SERVICE.

Medallion No. 6, next in the series, marks twin anniversaries of two of the most vital "pioneer inventions": The long rifle (1710) and the Conestoga wagon (1760). Models for this piece were executed by sculptor Robert A. Weinman, son of the late A. A. Weinman, designer of the Liberty Walking half dollar. Subscription mailings of this piece, now in preparation, are expected to be completed before December 15, 1960.

Postpaid price of the medallions (uniform for all pieces in the series) is $3.25 singly, or $6.00 per pair. The customary limit of not more than ten pieces per individual applies. Pieces are available from Heraldic Art, Box 5891, Cleveland 1, Ohio. Airmail handling is available at 7¢ additional per piece.

Uruguayan par value has been set at 7.40 pesos to the U. S. dollar.

ENGRAVED BANK NOTES, 1782-1866

By

C. E. WISMER OSMUN, A.N.A. No. 3119

THE printing art or creating impressions by outlining figures, forms, letters, numbers, pictures and various symbols to convey man's ideas and thoughts, as well as the engraving art, was in existence prior to the sixteenth century.

The art of bank note engraving in the United States began in 1782, when the Bank of North America, Philadelphia, commenced banking and issuing engraved bank notes. It was chartered by the Continental Congress on December 31, 1781, chartered by the Assembly of Penngan business in New York City. Bank notes were printed in ordinary types from 1782 to 1808. The engraving work was first done on copper plates, which eventually gave way to steel plates. Joseph Perkins of Boston developed the plan for substitution of steel for copper plates.

In 1818-19 the Spencer lathe was invented, which was first used on copper. The first lathe work made its appearance on bank notes about 1825. Bank notes were first made by the intaglio process from steel plates in the 1830s.

sylvania in 1782, and opened for business January 7, 1782.

The history of the Bank of North America with that name extended over a period from 1782 to 1929, when it merged with the Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Live and Granting Annuities. The Pennsylvania Company changed its name to the Pennsylvania Company for Banking and Trusts; in 1955 it merged with the First National Bank of Philadelphia and became the First Pennsylvania Banking and Trust Company, dating its existence from 1782 when the Bank of North America first commenced business. No part of the latter's name was preserved as it had been for one hundred and forty-seven years.

Bank note engraving was rather crude until about 1824, when A. B. and C. Durand, Wright and Co., be-

The Bank of North America issued one penny specie notes (one-ninetieth of a dollar) and three pence specie notes (three-ninetieths of a dollar) in 1789. These paper notes are illustrated in D. C. Wismer's book, Pennsylvania Descriptive List of Obsolete State Bank Notes 1782-1866, page 44, Note No. 606 and Note No. 607. In this book there are twenty-four different Bank of North America notes listed, Nos. 606 to 629 inclusive, with descriptions. All genuine notes of this bank are excessively rare and practically priceless.

In the beginning, the note engraver had a room in the bank building, and either the bank President or the engraver kept the bank note plates. The notes at that time were printed in the bank. At a later period, the notes were printed and engraved by bank note engraving companies.

The artists who illustrated and reproduced famous paintings, were chosen for the special work of making of bank notes, reproducing portraits and pictures in miniature. The bank notes were superbly adorned with vignettes of landscapes, commercial scenes, agricultural scenes, ships, railroads, historical views, famous portraits, medallions, lathe work ornamentation, together with other views too numerous to mention.

Our famous Revolutionary war hero, Paul Revere, was one of the earliest engravers in the colonial times. During the war, he furnished some colonial paper money, known as bills of credit. He is mentioned as one of the founders of the bank note business.

Here are the names of other early engravers of distinction: Moseley I. Danforth, Amos Doolittle, John Draper, Durand and Wright, R. G. Harrison, W. Harrison, Nathaniel Jocelyn, P. Maverick, G. Murray, S. C. Reed, Robert Scot.

Wright Bank Note Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

There were approximately twenty thousand or more different bank notes issued during the era of bank notes, that is, including the denominations, various combination of engravings, bank titles, locations, etc. At this time, it would not be possible to accumulate a complete collection of these notes, considering that all the notes issued from 1782 to 1830 are very rare, in fact many are unique and many have not been preserved since they were redeemed and destroyed. The later issues from 1830 to 1866 are scarce, rare and unique, depending upon condition, and as a rule there are not more than a dozen or more of the most common. Thousands which were used for money by our forefathers are lost to this generation.

Club News

Club Publications

The Editor and his assistant receive quite a few news publications issued by clubs primarily for the benefit of their own members. They vary from a single mimeographed sheet to offset printed pamphlets containing illustrations and numismatic articles. Both individually and collectively they represent the expenditure of a lot of effort, if not much money, and we believe them to be of considerable value in furthering the members' interest in their clubs.

We read and appreciate them — occasionally we pick up a news item of general interest to readers of THE NUMISMATIST. However, since they usually stress local news, and serve as notices for club meetings in the immediate future, they cannot serve as items for the "Club News" section. Clubs having problems or questions about getting their meetings reported in this section should request a form letter which gives information and suggestions on this subject. Just a memo or post card to the Editor will get you a copy of the letter by return mail.

At a recent dinner meeting of Kansas City Numismatic Society, the following

The Billings (Mont.) Coin Club elected officers at its October 27 meeting, as follows: W. R. "Curly" Scott, president (second term); Mrs. Leona Flattum, vice president; Mrs. Lillian Peters, secretary-treasurer; Loyal Haun and John Habeger, two-year senior directors; Larry Judd, junior director. These officers, with hold-over directors Francis B. George and Mrs. Kathryn Putnam, and immediate past president Felix Restad, will form the board for the 1960-61 fiscal year.

The second annual Midwest Coin Show, sponsored by the Heart of America Numismatic Association in Kansas City November 26-27, fulfilled all expectations and surpassed some. With representatives from both coasts, attendance exceeded 6,500. Nearly 150 exhibits ran the range of numismatic material with a total value of over a million dollars, and fifty-two bourse tables did a brisk business in both buying and selling. Most dealers reported that type material and single "key" coins were in great demand and bringing good prices, with gold coins active and commemoratives firm. Lack of activity in rolls and proof sets indicated that the day of the quick-profit speculator is passing and that collecting is getting back in the hands of the true collectors. The highest price paid for a single coin was $4,600 for a stella. The Best-of-Show award went to C. J. Wiley, with trophies for first, second and third in various categories as follows:

U.S. (other than gold) — C. J. Wiley, Ralph Hardman, Leo Sams; U.S. gold coins — Dr. H. L. Ketterman, R. J. Ketterman, Virginia Janda; foreign (other than gold) — Harold Eissinger, Ralph Bondon, Al. Lowe; foreign gold coins — Virginia Janda, Ray Lefman, Dr. H. L. Ketterman; paper money — Dr. Howard Carter, Ray Lefman, Leo Sams; medals, decorations and miscellaneous — Ray Janda, Felix Cannatella, Dale Hauber. Plaques for essays on coins and coin collecting were awarded to Jimmy Wiley, Donald Haake, Dave Hochberg. The Association thanks all who helped make this two-day show pleasant and successful, especially Co-Chairman Ray Lefman and Ralph Bondon, the many publications which gave advance news of it, and the collectors and visitors who attended. We will try to make next year's Midwest Coin Show even better. — DAVE HOCHBERG, Pub. Chm.

The Council of Greater Cleveland Coin Clubs has been formed for the prompt and efficient handling of matters in which the clubs in this area have a common interest. It is made up of three members from each of the five present clubs, and expects representatives from other clubs being formed in the Cleveland area. Officers are: Howard Humitsch, chairman; George Dorrian, vice chairman; Laura M. Caddy, secretary-treasurer. Members are: Cleveland Coin Club, Western Reserve Numismatic Club, Northeast Ohio Coin Club, West Cuyahoga Coin Club, Berea Coin Club. Matters pertaining to these clubs in common should be addressed to the Chairman, 1231 W. Blvd., Cleveland 2, Ohio.

The annual convention of Iowa Numismatic Society in Davenport, September 24 and 25, proved that Hawkeye numismatists do not have their spirits dampened by rain, with bourse tables sold out, the banquet oversubscribed and top quality displays. An enlightening talk by John Davenport, following the banquet, on his experiences in European museums evidenced a return to educational numismatics from mere commercialism. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Ward Troja, president; Don Jensen, first vice president; Phil Budd, second vice president; Al Eidt, secretary-treasurer; W. E. Van Hook, historian; and directors William Fisher, Kenny Benedict, Dean Oaks, William Ott, W. E. Van Hook and L. K. Ferguson. The 1961 convention will be held in Marshalltown.

The 622nd meeting of New York Numismatic Club was held October 14. Martin Kortjohn commented on a new nontarnishable finish which has been developed by Union Carbide Co., and a discussion followed on its possible use as a preservative on silver coins. Best exhibit awards went to John Zidlick for the June meeting, David McClymont for the August meeting and Dania Francis for her outstanding collection of hard times tokens shown at this meeting. Raymond Gallo extended an invitation to us to attend meetings of the Bronx Coin Club, which will be held hereafter on the fourth Wednesday monthly at Rosoff's Restaurant on West 43rd Street. — RICHARD W. MURRIE, Sec.-Treas.

At a recent meeting of Pittsburgh Numismatic Society, Mrs. Lucy A. Kelly exhibited and spoke on her collection of Jackson tokens, which contained 75 of the 181 pieces listed by Lyman H. Low. This exhibit won first prize at an all day coin show in Greensburg. At our November 17 meeting, she showed the collection again with added items of Jackson memorabilia, such as medals, campaign ribbons, uniform buttons, a statuette and picture, which brings it to about 110 pieces. Joe Breyer's unique display of mementos from the Philadelphia Centennial of 1876 was awarded first prize. It includes items such as brooches, medals, cuff links, ribbons, flags, etc., which were sold on the grounds of the Exposition. John Booth won second prize with his type collection of U. S. coins, while Dr. Robert Hudson's unusual display of Civil War tokens was judged third. Ray Byrne exhibited tokens of Pittsburgh's new and old court houses. Ironically, he obtained these tokens while on the northwest coast rather than in the eastern part of the country. — CONSTANCE A. LEONE, Reporter

The October 25 meeting of Shidler (Okla.) Coin Club was held in the home of George Singleton, Jr., with eight members and two guests present. Janice Van Camp gave an enlightening program on Alaska, and Frank Silva told of his interesting visit to the recent coin convention in Kansas. As usual, the evening was concluded with viewing of exhibits and refreshments. — MRS. J. C. NELSON, Sec.-Treas.

The Muscle Shoals Coin Club annual banquet was held October 4, at the Muscle Shoals Hotel with 120 members and guests attending. Recognized guests were Dr. Walter B. Jones, George Swindle, Tuscaloosa; John Morris, Halsey Townes, Birmingham; Lewis Beil, Mrs. Muriel Cox, Decatur; Bill Gruenberg, Memphis. Topic of discussion was forming an Alabama Numismatic Association with a future meeting being planned for club representatives. Club history was given by C. Smith Trimble. Outgoing officers were presented gifts. Elected officers for the new year are Dr. S. S. Norvell, president; Dr. M. C. Dunn, Vice President; A. W. Beinlich, Jr., vice president; Mrs. Jack Brooks, recording secretary; Erwin Catts, correspondence secretary; Mrs. Jane Riddle, treasurer; Charley Palmer, director.

A new card-type attendance record was initiated at the October 25 meeting of Temple (Texas) Coin Club and it proved to be a time and confusion saver. Each member and guest signs a printed card upon entering the hall, and receives a chance on the door prize of the evening. Five new members accepted brings our roster to ninety-one, which we consider good for a club organized only ten months ago. Reports were given on the banquet staged by the Austin Coin Club on October 13 in honor of A.N.A. President Dodson, including a review of his brilliant talk for the benefit of our members who were not there. We also heard reports of the TNA convention in Fort Worth October 14-16, including announcement that we were chosen to hold the 1962 convention in April. — JAMES C. MARSH, A.N.A. Rep.

Attendance at the 123rd meeting of Long Beach Coin Club was 135, including ten junior members. Congratulations were expressed to those responsible for the Club placing third in National Coin Week competition. Blaine Milliron announced the formation of a coin club in Compton, which will hold its first meeting October 21. A talk entitled "Horse Cents" was given by Clyde Grimm, authority on colonial coins, in which he described the New Jersey cents. Several specimens, including rare ones, were exhibited by the speaker from his own collection. — ALICE BRIGHTENBURG, Corr. Sec.

The 33rd meeting of Glendale (Calif.) Coin Club was held November 21 at the Tuesday Afternoon Club, with Thomas H. Wood presiding, 74 present. John Yribarne gave a very interesting narration on Indian head cents, and displayed his outstanding set consisting of uncirculated and proof coins. We also enjoyed an exhibit of decorations, including the Order of Isabella in two grades with sash, coins of Latin America, eight reales of Mexico and Central America, by Bill Koonce; and a complete set of Jefferson and Buffalo nickels by V. F. Stover. — ESTELLE K. POWERS, Rec. Sec.

New officers of Clearwater (Fla.) Coin Club are: Ralph C. Lewis, president; R. J. DeRobertis, vice president; Murray Booth, treasurer; Mrs. Fern Connett, secretary; directors Douglas Brown, R. L. Hendershott, George C. Moeller and Leo Zolg. The Club's meeting place has been changed to the Chamber of Commerce Building, where meetings will be held the first and third Tuesdays monthly. — MRS. FERN CONNETT, Sec.

Neil Shafer gave an illustrated talk on "American Coinage of the Philippines" at the November 7 meeting of Washington (D.C.) Numismatic Society in the Natural History Museum. Reports were made on the recent successful M.A.N.A. convention and on the People-to-People Program, which seems to be progressing satisfactorily. Numismatists visiting in the capital are invited to attend our meetings. — JOSEPH A. CLARKE, Sec.

The 76th meeting of Central California Coin Club was attended by thirty-three at the Monterey Library on November 21. The death of our good member Jesse Martin on November 17, following a brief illness, was observed by a minute of silence. An innovation in our bimonthly auction was having runners deliver lots and collect the money as they were sold, which made a big improvement in the proceedings. Among the lots was a 1904 Lewis and Clark gold dollar, EF, but with solder removed, which brought $65. E. R. Blankenship displayed many old and unusual pieces of U.S. paper money and gold coins. — WARREN S. CLAUNCH, Sec.

The fourth anniversary dinner meeting of Ferndale Stamp and Hobby Club was attended by 27 members and guests November 18. After the ham dinner, a quiz on Presidents of the United States was enjoyed, with silver dollars awarded to the highest scorer. Since the membership includes both stamp and coin collectors, we are starting semimonthly meetings, with the first stressing stamps and other hobbies, while the second is devoted entirely to the collecting and study of coins. Plans are being made for a Canadian coin night and auction on February 17. The Club still has souvenir wooden nickels which were issued for the "Logger's Fun Days" celebration. A list of available cacheted covers sponsored by the Club may be obtained from the permanent Activity-Director, P. O. Box 453, Ferndale, Cal. He will be glad to furnish other information concerning the Club, also. — DONALD D. LAWTON, Activity-Dir.

The following 1961 officers of San Fernando Valley Coin Club were elected at its November meetings: president, Earl Glen Whitehead; first vice president, Thomas H. Wood; second vice president, Walter Snyder; secretary, Mrs. Gladys M. Blood, 312½ N. Hollywood Way, Burbank, Cal.; treasurer, Rodney Bennett, and governors, George Bennett, Norman Johnson, Murray Singer, Russell Snyder, Thurman W. Thompson, and C. R. Young. — THOMAS H. WOOD, Vice Pres.

The Santa Barbara Coin Club held its November 21 meeting in the Carrillo Hotel with eighty-nine members and guests, the year's largest attendance. A resolution was passed that the Club write President Dodson urging that A.N.A. look into the action recently taken by the Treasury Department in confiscating off metal coins, to see what can be done to clarify the collector's position. Henry Jung received a 1957 proof set as winner of the newsletter naming contest for his entry "Santa Barbara Coin Club's Newsette." The program for the evening was devoted to the Lincoln cent. President Bower gave a brief history of the cent; Al Edson gave some surprising statistics on the number of Lincoln cents issued; Don Jurgensen presented its history from the dealer's viewpoint, illustrating it with a 1936 coin book which listed a 1909-S VDB in V.F. for only 3¢, and tracing it up to today's market; a question and answer period followed. The highlight of the program was a series of locally prepared slides showing the grades of the Lincoln cent and what to look for when grading it. There were some twenty Lincoln cent displays by members. The evening was such a success that a meeting will be planned around another denomination, to be decided upon by the members. — GWEN SENTIS, Sec.

(Editor's note: See page 1786, December, 1960, issue regarding A.N.A. meeting with Treasury officials for more effective cooperation.)

Thirty-nine persons attending the October meeting of Pacific Coast Numismatic Society furnished twenty exhibits. This had been designated as other hobbies meeting and the exhibits covered a wide variety of collections, including commemorative plates, Indian artifacts, comical cocktail napkins, rocks and minerals. Guest speaker Austen D. Warburton of Santa Clara gave an informative talk on the history of Indians of the West. He exhibited many items made by the Indians and told of their uses. Seven of our members exhibited at the October 27-30 C.S.N.A. convention in San Diego, and the following won awards: Clifford L. Liss, first in U.S. coins with his "Coins of an Era"; Rudy Gjurovich, second in U.S. paper money; John D. Sears, first in foreign coins with "Around the World With Fifty Crowns"; Ernest A. Meyers, third in modern gold coins, and Roy Hill, third with a specialized exhibit of "Mint History."

Dr. John C. Harguth was elected president of the Winona Coin Club at the organization's fifth anniversary banquet and annual business meeting held Saturday evening, October 22, at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Club, Winona, Minnesota. Other elected officers are Arthur F. Giere, vice president; Eric K. Schulz, treasurer. Re-elected secretary is Roland W. Finner. Retiring officers are Gerald Van Pelt, president; Dr. John C. Harguth, St. Charles, vice president; Lewis Shira, Winona, treasurer.

In observance of the club's fifth anniversary, remaining charter members were introduced to the nearly fifty members and guests attending. Organized in October, 1955, the organization has grown from twenty charter members to the present total of eighty-six members, including eleven junior members, from a three state area (Minnesota, Iowa and Wisconsin).

Following a roast turkey dinner, Arthur F. Giere presented an original paper entitled, "Mottos on Coins." "The United States adopted 'In God We Trust' as the motto for its coins in the early 1860's to demonstrate to the world that this is a God fearing nation," Giere stated. "The first American coin bearing this motto was a 2¢ piece. The first time the motto was used on American paper currency was in 1957 when the motto was added to the reverse side of the $1 bill."

Three members were given special recognition and awards consisting of sets of 1960 U.S. proof coins. Honored were Mrs. Roland A. Graves and Mrs. Charles R. Woods, for their untiring efforts to provide refreshments at monthly club meetings. Mrs. Graves is a former secretary of the club. Recognition also went to Roland W. Finner, a charter member, former vice president and immediate past secretary, for his efforts as editor of the club's monthly news letter, Winona Coin Club Comments.

On exhibition were prize winning displays of U.S. coins and paper currency and Canadian coins from the collections of Ernest C. Schatz, J. Mortimer Pugh, Arlie Burreson. Club historian Miss Orlane Kittle displayed the club's scrapbook of news clippings and photographs which covers the club's five year history since organized. The banquet planning committee consisted of Fred L. Smith and Arthur F. Giere, program; Gerald Van Pelt and Orlane Kittle, banquet details; Roland W. Finner, general arrangements. Winona Coin Club meets regularly on the last Tuesday evening of each month at the V.F.W. Club, 117 Market St., Winona, Minn. Visitors are always welcome. The club mailing address is: c/o P. O. Box 131, Winona.

The Philadelphia Coin Club held its election meeting October 18 at the John Bartram Hotel, with the following being named for the coming year: Saul Solomon, president; Alex Kaptik, first vice president; Byron Hoke, second vice president; Thomas Werner, secretary; William Whittaker, treasurer; Howard Street, curator; John Tellefesen, board member-at-large. Reports of our twenty-fifth anniversary convention October 14-15 indicate a great success, with nearly four hundred attending. Thomas Werner reported that a collection of fractional currency specimen notes was stolen from his table during the convention. Walter Stepek exhibited two custom made proof set holders containing sets from 1950 to date. — BYRON M. HOKE, Secretary.

Members of Philadelphia Coin Club were saddened by the death of Emile Fry, an outstanding member of the club. An uncirculated set of Hawaiian coins was voted the best display of the November 15 meeting, although a $5-$10 double-denomination note created much interest. A numismatic crossword puzzle furnished entertainment for the evening. Asher Leatherman was appointed the Club's A.N.A. representative; Samuel Bergdorf and Hance Jaquett were appointed delegates to the MANA convention, with Alex Kaptik an alternate. — THOMAS E. WERNER, Secretary.

The outstanding feature of the October meeting of Bay Cities Coin Club was the display of rare pattern and trial pieces from Bill Fanning's collection. Bill's fascinating talk on his patterns certainly enlightened us on this little known field of numismatics. — E. CAROLYN NESTRICK, Sec.

The Trenton (N. J.) Numismatic Club held its October 3 meeting at the "Farmhouse" on West State St., with President Joe Wood presiding over 37 members and guests. Lack of room for our growing attendance prompted a resolution that we seek larger quarters. There was considerable discussion on questions posed by members on the confiscation of silver cents and other matters. Exhibits were as follows: Civil War cents by Will Mumford (judged the best); Canadian dollars by William Wright; an uncut sheet of National Currency $5 notes, serial numbers A0001 to A0006, by Norman Pullen; counterfeits by Anthony D'Ambrosio. — MRS. NORMAN W. PULLEN, Sec.

The Greensburg (Pa.) Coin Club's first Coin Show and Bourse, held at the Mt. Vue Hotel on September 25, drew an attendance of over 600. With thanks to those who attended and helped make this show a great success, we are making plans for a two-day affair in 1961. — VIRGINIA A. LINDH, Corr. Sec.

President Myron Sobotta called to order the 250th regular meeting of Cleveland Coin Club at the Statler Hilton Hotel on October 8. From extensive reading, Dorothy Humitsch cleverly portrayed an enlightened us on the "Three Red Heads" and historical events concerning them. The three turned out to be King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain, and that most famous navigator who discovered America instead of a new route to China, Christopher Columbus. One of the interesting facts which Dorothy brought out is that the number of mints in Spain was increased from five to a hundred and fifty during Isabella's reign. She displayed several books, an Isabella quarter, 1892 and 1893 Columbian Exposition half dollars, a large bronze medal of Columbus and a larger aluminum one. Mike Kolman showed a uniquely presented display of paper money used during the Civil War, some with red and some with green seals. Howard Humitsch showed an unusual likeness of the "1959-1960-1961" numismatist, who collected single coins in 1959, rolls in 1960 and bags in 1961. — THELMA HILTBUNNER, Sec.

The Wichita Falls (Texas) Stamp & Coin Club recently passed a resolution to encourage Congress to take legislative action to stop the altering of coin dates, and to make sale of such coins illegal. We ask the help of other clubs in this worthy cause, by sending the same or similar resolutions to their Congressmen. Our resolution follows: "We, the Wichita Falls Stamp and Coin Club, resolve that legislative action should be taken to make it illegal to alter the date, mint mark, or design of any United States coin. We further believe that any attempt to alter, sell, or offer for sale any altered coin should be illegal and the penalty should be the same as that for defacing United States coins." — MRS. M. D. CRAIG, Chm. Resolution Comm.

The Kenosha (Wisc.) Coin Club held its November 3 meeting at the Protestant Youth Center, with an election of officers for the coming year resulting as follows: Lawrence Burnett, president; Harold Peters, vice president; John Finley, secretary; Elmer Slemensky, treasurer; William Reynolds, sergeant at arms; Paul Magnusson, librarian; and Joseph Burnett and William Spencer, auctioneers. These officers will be installed at the January meeting. The Club's annual smorgasbord and auction has been set for April 22 at Maplecrest Country Club. It was voted to use some of the money left in the treasury at the year end for the purchase of proof and mint sets to be used as door prizes during the coming year. — N. EMORY MISCHLER, Pub. Chm.

There were 286 members and guests in attendance at the 391st meeting of Los Angeles Coin Club on October 7 at Forrester's Hall. The applications of nine new members were accepted. Display Chairman John Paradowski called attention to the unusual displays of the evening, including coins of the Orient and China by William Koonce, and "cartwheels" of London by Joseph Wozniak. President Murray Singer appointed Bill Fanning, Able Sampson and G. Lee Kuntz as a committee to nominate officers for 1961. — MARLENE SIMON.

The Carbon County Coin Club was organized recently in Price, Utah, with monthly meetings to be held in member's homes. The host displays his or her coins, and one member is selected to give a short coin talk. At the October meeting Alvin J. Gaudio displayed his set of Mercury dimes, including a 1916-D in very fine condition. The Club has only nine members at present, but many other collectors have shown an interest in joining. — ALVIN J. GAUDIO, Sec.-Treas.

Al Bray, 2155 Monroe St., Eugene, Oregon, is general chairman of the fourth annual Jamboree to be held by the Willamalane Coin Club, January 27-29, at the Park and Recreation District Memorial Building in Springfield. Bourse tables, exhibits, auctions, door prizes and fun for everyone are planned. There will be a banquet Saturday evening. Jamboree souvenir pens will be sold for 25¢ and may be ordered by mail from William Christie, 290 Polk Street, Eugene. Visitors will be welcomed cordially. — STELLA SKAGGS, Publicity.

The 329th meeting of Brooklyn Coin Club was held November 2 in the Hotel Grenada, with 36 in attendance. Features of the meeting were a paper on colonial half cents by William Wild, and fine exhibits by Morris Bram, James Brown, M. Geiger, Michael Granis, Rev. Frank Hutchins, Richard Layman, Harris Leder, Victor Melnechuck, Ed Schuman and Boris Wisly. — JAMES A. BROWN, Rec. Sec.

Herbert Phillips used slides which he had made as illustrations for an excellent talk on grading coins at the 613th meeting of the Baltimore Coin Club. Thirty members and six guests profited by the talk and seeing slides of large cents, buffalo nickels and mercury dimes in various conditions. — W. DONALD PENNINGTON, Sec.

The 267th monthly meeting of Orange County Coin Club was attended by 176 on September 26 in Brea. President Dan Harley assumed the role of Collector of the Month, with a display of Chinese coins arranged in teakwood trays housed in a teakwood chest evidently was made in China. This collection was given to Dan by a friend who found it in an abandoned house near Lancaster, and represents the principal dynasties from B.C. to modern times. The interest created by this find should start a search of old houses everywhere. Guests Lou Wallrath and Charles Johnson gave glowing accounts of the A.N.A. Convention in Boston, which both had attended. Program Chairman John Rime introduced Edgar Green as speaker of the evening, who borrowed from a talk given many years ago by a noted numismatist on the broad subject "Numismatics." He traced the history of coins from ancient to modern times, stressing that coins furnish more historical facts than almost any other objects handed down from past civilizations, and supply the only authentic portraits of many monarchs of early times.

At the October 27 meeting, President Harley reported that Howard Stolper died suddenly on October 19. Howard was a popular dealer who had a bourse table at our meetings for many years. His passing was observed by a minute of silent meditation. Sam Koepfel, a charter member who has not attended meetings for some time, was present and gave some interesting comments on his recent trips to Europe to gather numismatic material. Ralph Mitchell spoke in place of Harry Lessin, who was unable to be present. Both collect "So-Called Dollars," so Ralph was able to speak on the topic which Harry had planned, and to display a nearly complete set of these medallic coins. We were especially interested to learn that a book on this subject is to be published in the near future. — HERB BERGEN, Sec.

At the November meeting of Greensboro (N. C.) Coin Club, the following were elected for 1961: A. D. Foster, president; J. W. Jackson, Jr., vice president; Mrs. Viola A. Braxton, 2111 Braxton Lane, secretary-treasurer; and board members Otis Oakley, M. K. Bason, Walter B. Braxton and Ralph Clayton. These officers will be installed at the January 14 meeting. — MRS. VIOLA A. BRAXTON, Sec.-Treas.

John Francis was awarded the monthly medal for the best exhibit at the 623rd meeting of the New York Numismatic Club, with an outstanding collection of Canadian tokens. Other exhibits were of silver dollars, 1794 through 1804; paper money illustrating Cabinet members; and gold coins of Central and South America. Charles Wormser reported on the series of coin robberies which have been plaguing collectors and dealers throughout the country recently. — RICHARD W. MURRIE, Sec.-Treas.

The Date Empire Coin Club, Indio, Calif., was organized and held its first meeting September 16 in the Security Bank club room, where it will meet the third Saturday evening monthly. Officers are: Ward Hafeley, president; Norman Siffing, vice president; Donna Laubsch, secretary; Sue McLain, treasurer; and Donald Laubsch, Charles Dometrius and Robert Durkee, directors. — DONNA M. LAUBSCH, Sec.

The death of A. Earl Coatsworth, a member of the Western Pennsylvania Numismatic Society for over forty years, occurred on October 23, was reported at the November 1 meeting of the Society. We had unusually fine displays of medals, private gold coins and other numismatic items by H. C. Bartley, Dr. Hudson, Richard Foley, Meyer Goddy and Dr. Paul Gillis at this meeting. — ROBERT A. LLOYD, Sec.

Lawrence Shane of South Barre, Vt., was named president of the newly organized Twin City Coin Club at its first meeting. Other officers elected by the twenty charter members are: George D. Milne, vice president; Miss Jackie Audette, secretary; and Mrs. Dorothy Clogston, treasurer. Chester Blow was named chairman of the auction committee, and Miss Jean Mahoney, chairman of the publicity committee. Reading of proposed By-Laws and a Constitution were the main topics of business at the first meeting, where it was voted to hold meetings the second Thursday monthly in Hotel Barre. — JEAN MAHONEY, Pub. Chm.

The Muncie Coin and Stamp Club announces its fifth annual coin and stamp show to be held January 29 at the Muncie (Indiana) Armory, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Charles Miller is general chairman, and George McKnight is in charge of bourse tables. Prizes will be given for exhibits of U. S. coins and foreign coins, in both senior and junior divisions. Admission is free and visitors are invited. — MRS. MARY ALICE TALBERT, Corr. Sec.

The New Jersey Numismatic Society held its 322nd meeting November 10 at the Military Park Hotel in Newark. The nomination and election of officers for 1961 resulted in re-election of the incumbents — George Wait, president; James Ward, vice president; James A. Brown, secretary-treasurer; Herbert Oechsner gave an informative talk about "Hard Times and Political Tokens." Most of them are about the size of large cents and some may have been used for small change, but largely they were intended as advertisements or political propaganda. An excellent exhibit of them was made up from the collections of various members. — JAMES A. BROWN, Sec.-Treas.

The Billings Coin Club held a dinner meeting November 10 at the Bureau of Reclamation Cafeteria, at which the following officers for 1961 were installed: president, W. R. Scott; vice president, Leona Flattum; secretary-treasurer, Lillian Peters; senior directors, John Habeger and Loyal Haun; junior director, Larry Judd. Certificates of merit for services rendered to the Club were presented to past presidents Henry Kidd, Francis George, Felix Restad; to past secretaries Kay Putnam and Henry Kidd. — ELISABETH V. MONROE, Pub. Chm.

The Greater Houston Coin Club is proud to announce that it has been awarded the 1961 spring convention of the Texas Numismatic Association, which will be held at the Shamrock-Hilton Hotel, April 7-9. For information about this three-day show, contact A. I. Martin, 5609 Chaucer, Houston 5, Texas. The auction has been awarded to Eugene Demko, Box 274, Columbus, Nebr., who solicits items for the mail and floor sale. Since the list will be published in magazines, material should be in his hands by mid-January. — DORIS MARTIN, Corr. Sec.

Sixty-five members of Waco Heart O'Texas Coin Club met at Texas Power and Light Company's service center November 10 and elected the following officers for 1961: James Goddard, president; L. L. Edmonds, vice president; B. O. Miller, secretary-treasurer; Kalvart K. Tidwell, publicity chairman and corresponding secretary. — KALVART K. TIDWELL.

The October 22 meeting of Toronto Coin Club at the Royal York Hotel was attended by 46. Guest speaker G. R. L. Potter of Ottawa spoke about some "fake" $10, $20 and $100 bills which were loaned to him to show us by the Crime Detection Labs of Ottawa, with a member of the R.C.M.P. along to see that none of them was "lost." The number of persons who viewed the notes and asked questions of the speaker indicated great interest in his talk.

Ida Mae Griffin spoke on "Can You Display Your Coins?" at the 124th meeting of Long Beach Coin Club on November 1. Charles Johnson told of the excellent displays and the success of the California State Numismatic Association convention in San Diego. Henry Cutting asked for displays for the Long Beach hobby show next April 21-23. A study and suggestions for revision of our constitution will be made by the committee named for this purpose. Approval was given to incorporate the Club as a non profit organization. We are pleased with the beautiful plaque which the Club won for third place in class A clubs competition during National Coin Week. — ALICE BRIGHTENBURG, Corr. Sec.

The 239th meeting of Indianapolis Coin Club was held October 26 with 107 members present. Final preparations for our tenth year of participation in the Hobby Show were made. Lee Terry gave a report on the business meeting and bourse activity of the Indiana State Numismatic Association at South Bend. Wm. Hurt had an exhibit of broken bank notes which coincided with the A.N.A. slides shown on this subject.

Officers for 1961 were elected at the November 16 meeting, as follows: William Rosner, president; William Hurt, vice president; Jack Hutchinson, treasurer; Max Keller, secretary. Reports of the Hobby Show indicate that more people visited our booth than in any previous year. Exhibits were by Walter Smith, Jack Hutchinson, Willie Cook and Lee Norquist. Lee related his numismatic experiences while on a recent business trip to England and France, and showed some beautiful slides of points of interest in those countries. — WILLIAM ROSNER, Pres.

Miss Alva Christensen, President of San Gabriel Valley Coin Club, presided over the fifty-seven members and guests at the 115th meeting in the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena. This meeting was designated as "Boy Scout Night," and member Dan Sheets, a Scout leader, acted as co-ordinator for our guests. These Scouts were working for or have earned the merit badge for coin collecting, and demonstrated that they know their manual by answering questions which would have stumped many adult collectors. A godly portion of our meetings are devoted to educational descriptions of the members' displays. Exhibitors at this meeting included I. Newton Sanders, a beautiful 1804 quarter eagle; M. H. Bolender, rare $1.50 and $1.25 notes of 1862 from Washington; Charles Farrell, English crown of Charles II, 1662, the first of the lettered edge coins; Robert Modisette, Mishler Alaska-Hawaii silver medal; Durrell Smith, first $2 silver certificate, Series of 1886; junior member Mark Wohlwend, 1906 Canadian quarter; Bill Fisher, "so-called" half dollar set; and Henri Heller, a type set of "pirate gold" composed of one each 8, 4, 2, 1, and ½ escudo from Chile, Ecuador and Peru. — ETHEL R. STONE, Corr. Sec.

The 294th meeting of the Heart of America Numismatic Association was held November 21 at Elk's Hall in Kansas City, with over 150 members and guests attending. The election of officers for 1961 resulted as follows: president, Buford Ellis; first vice president (programs), Joe Flynn; second vice president (auctions and newspapers), Charles Keeler; secretary, Jim Smith; treasurer, E. A. Godsmark. — DAVID S. HOCHBERG, Publ. Chm.

The Vancouver (B.C.) Coin Club welcomed 91 to its November 3 meeting at the Kerrisdale Community Centre. Members were especially pleased to have Gordon Macrow, a collector from Australia, as a guest. Larry Gingras reported that we will start the new year with our bulletin produced on our new Gestetner, and he reminded us that one of the Aluminum Company's medallions may be obtained by writing to it at Kitimat. B. C. Irene Smith indicated that there are now 152 members on the Club's books. The proposed revisions to our constitution were studied and adopted, preparatory to incorporating under the Societies Act. Progress was reported on the commemorative medal to be issued in observance of Vancouver's seventy-fifth anniversary in 1961. Robert Eveleigh reported five new members of C.N.A. from British Columbia, bringing the total to 210. The feature of the evening was the showing of color slides of British Columbia transportation tokens. Larry Gingras produced and commented on the slides, providing the historical background and local color of the tokens. He was assisted by Ken Hodgson in this very worthy contribution. — C. B. MARSHALL, Publicity.

The Old Fort Coin Club of Fort Wayne, Ind., attracted 850 persons to its third annual exhibit on November 13. There were fifty displays and twenty-nine bourse dealers from Indiana and Ohio. Exhibit judges Leo G. Terry, John E. Deren and R. E. Daniels awarded the large Best-in-Show trophy to Robert Bender for his entry in the U. S. general class. Other first place plaque winners and second and third place ribbon winners were as follows: U. S. minor coins — Bernice Shaffer, D. Drompp, W. Prentice; U. S. silver coins — Victor Sandlin, Jim Fairfield, D. Martin; U. S. general — Robert Bender, B. Ault, J. Fairfield; U. S. paper money — Bill Brummond, B. Ault (no third); ancient coins — Martin Nading, A. Merritt (both second and third); foreign coins — Victor Sandlin, A. Merritt, K. Hollenbach; gold coins — Robert Bender, E. Lee, L. Beaver; medals and tokens — L. Clwering (no second and third); specialized and miscellaneous — B. Ault, G. Broughton, A. Merritt; Junior Division — U. S. coins and paper money — Noel Patton, M. Huffman, M. Stresser; foreign coins and paper money — Paul Cunningham, P. Cunningham, J. Wappes. — VICTOR L. SANDLIN, Pub. Chm.

ADVERTISERS PLEASE NOTE ALL FOLLOWING CONDITIONS

All correspondence relating to advertising should be addressed to the Advertising Manager, S. W. Freeman, P. O. Box 591, Newport, Ark. Make all remittances payable to the American Numismatic Association.

Advertising Contracts: These are available, covering periods of three, six and twelve consecutive months for display space as listed in the above Table of Rates, and are necessary if the schedule of reduced rates is to apply. If the advertiser prefers not to accept the Contract, such reduced rates will be granted only upon payment in advance for the period desired.

References: All advertisers who submit copy for the first time are definitely requested to furnish therewith banking or other satisfactory references.

Available Space Units: Practical considerations restrict the allocation of space units to those listed in the above table. Any amount of space (subject to any current limitation) is available IF these units or a combination of them are used. Unless contrary instructions are given, copy will be cut if found too full for the space designated; if no designation is made, it shall be understood the amount of space is left to the discretion of the Advertising Manager.

Unless under contract, smaller units than one-half page accepted subject to available space in desired issue.

Deadline: Copy must be received by the Advertising Manager by the 7th of the month to insure insertion in the following month's issue.

Illustrations: All cuts to be provided by the advertisers, care being used to see that they do not exceed in measurement the limits of the space unit desired. The Advertising Manager will, when requested, have suitable cuts made from furnished photographs.

We cannot accept mats or stereos.

Miscellaneous: Please furnish copy separately from your letter of transmittal. Advertising copy included in the body of a letter usually has to be retyped for the printer; this should not be required. Mail Bid Sales listing not acceptable. It is also the policy of the magazine to limit its advertisements to those of numismatic character.

Preparation of Copy: Advertising copy should be prepared with minute care. Carelessness invites error — something which both advertiser and publisher are anxious to avoid. Use only one side of the sheet. Send originals, not carbon copies. Use only paper of good quality, and not of extremely light weight.

In the absence of an Advertising Contract, when payment in advance for any number of consecutive months has been made, if change of copy has not been received by the 7th of the month for the next issue, the latest preceding advertisement will be run.

Advertisers may use a trade name, but, except in the case of an incorporated concern, the name of the proprietor or some other responsible person connected with the firm must also appear in the advertisement.

The right to edit copy, to require payment in advance, and to decline any advertisement is specifically reserved.

ONLY ONE TO A CUSTOMER...

THE IDLER 1804
SILVER DOLLAR

The KING OF AMERICAN COINS is being offered as part of the Edwin M. Hydeman Collection. One to a customer, indeed — and to one fortunate customer. Even in this small and exclusive class, the class of 1804 Dollars. The Idler Dollar is an aristocrat, for it brings with it that which the advanced and discriminating collector seeks — a pedigree second to none.

IF THAT IS NOT FOR YOU

Read on — this is!

If you collect U. S. coins, this is for you. The sale will include Large Cents, small cents, 2¢, 3¢ silver, 3¢ nickels, 5¢ nickels, half dimes, dimes, 20 cents pieces, quarters, halves, gold of all denominations. If you want an 1856 Cent or the small motto 2 cents piece; if you want the 1877 nickel or the 1895-O dime; if you want a $4.00 gold piece or an 1894-S dime (out of the World's Greatest Collection); if an 1876-CC 20 cents piece is one of your wants (the Jerome Kern specimen). Yes, the 1896-S quarter and half dollar, the 1901-S quarter and half dollar — and all the rest.

CATALOGUES FREE to all on our regular mailing list and to others on request.

(Due for release the last week in January)

If you want to vacation in Southern California and attend a coin convention and the sale as well — early reservations are suggested. The Sale will be held at the STATLER-HILTON HOTEL, Los Angeles, California, on March 3-5, 1961, as a feature of the annual convention of the Numismatic Association of Southern California.

at your hobby dealer

Whitman All-In-One book-form folders provide a wonderfully convenient way to classify and protect your coins. Titles are stamped in gold on front cover and also on the binding edge for easy identification on the shelf. Dates and mint marks are shown beneath each coin position. Sturdy panels fold flat into a genuine book binding. Whitman All-In-One book-form coin folders are available for pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters, half-dollars, year mint sets and type coins. Each folder includes a page of information on the coin type for which the folder is made.

A VERY SOUND INVESTMENT

- (1) Roll (20) 1880-CC ...$225.00
(1) Roll (20) 1885-CC ...$225.00
Carson City Morgan Dollars
All Strictly Uncirculated

The 1885 Carson City Dollar with a mintage of only 228,000 is the fourth smallest mintage of all Silver Dollars from 1878 to 1935. To own one of these in strictly brilliant uncirculated condition for only $15.00 is one of the scarce coins all collectors should have; and to own a roll of 20 with an investment of only $225.00 should not be overlooked by all investment minded collectors.

For comparison the 1889-CC Dollar, total mintage of 350,000, is now selling for $150.00 each; the 1892-CC Dollar, mintage over one million is selling for more than $20.00 each; and the 1879-CC Dollar, with 756,000, has a price tag of about $85.00.

My Special Price for the set of six 1880 to 1885 is $59.50. 1880-1881-1882-1883-1884-1885.

Please keep in mind that all these Dollars are strictly Brilliant Uncirculated Coins and the ten different dates listed below are certainly well behind the spectacular rise in price of most desirable coins in the past year.

There isn't a more practical and helpful numismatic reference book than the Whitman Handbook of United States Coins for beginners and advanced collectors. You can look up mint records and mint marks, find information on how coins are produced. There is also a guide for buying all U.S. coins as well as expert advice on what to buy when starting a collection. All U.S. copper, nickel, silver and gold coins are interestingly described and fully illustrated.

These buying prices are only a partial listing of the cash we are paying for desirable numismatic material. The coins and sets listed above must be free from tarnish, spotting, scratches and not artificially cleaned. A natural light toning or patina is desired to a cleaned coin. Uncirculated commemorative coins are particularly wanted. We will pay 70% to 85% of current selling prices for this series. Competitive prices will be paid for all series of U. S. coins in all conditions with a few exceptions. We do not deal or are prepared to handle common circulated coins, speculative rolls and all foreign money. If a complete collection is offered, we will buy the entire collection and not choose key coins. So send us your duplicates, partial or complete sets or collection. You will be most gratified with our offer. We will hold your coins intact and mail you a check for our top buying price. If you are not satisfied, mail the check back within 5 days and your coins will be returned postpaid. Write first if you have some questions, but we cannot quote prices unless we examine the coins.

If you are in the market to buy select U. S. material, please send us your want lists. Our stock contains most coins in proof, uncirculated and lesser conditions for most dates of Indian and Lincoln Cents; Shield, Liberty and Jefferson Nickels; Standing Liberty and Washington Quarters; Proof Sets; and all U. S. Commemorative Coins.

All correspondence will be courteously answered and prices quoted for material on hand. The usual 3-day money-back guarantee holds for all coins sold by our service.

PROOF SETS FOR SALE AND WANTED

A SOUND INVESTMENT

Try our fast service. All orders shipped within 5 hours after I receive them. Add 50¢ for shipping charges. If you are in a hurry to buy or sell proof sets, call me on the Phone General 7-3733.

WE CAN SERVE YOU BETTER

We are full time dealers in proof sets only. We have thousands of proof sets in stock. We are ready to serve you. Until the proof set market gets settled we reserve the right to change our selling or buying prices without notice.

We can fill all orders — large or small.

We want all date proof sets. Price them to me or write for buying prices. Any of the above proof sets mounted in beautiful plastic holders, $1.75 extra. Red book coin guide, $1.75 per copy. Blue book coin guide, $1.00 per copy. 2x2 brown kraft envelopes, 1,000, $2.75. E.Z.E.S.T. Coin cleaner, $2.00 per jar.

I AM NOW TAKING ORDERS FOR THE 1961 PROOF SETS

The price is $3.00 per set. I predict that there will be a great demand for the 1961 proof sets. Send your remittance now. Expect delivery around Feb. 1st, 1961. The early strike proof sets are always much nicer than the sets struck later in the year. All orders filled in strict sequence of receipt. Please limit your orders to not more than 100 sets. And enclose 50¢ for shipping charges.

TO INVESTMENT MINDED COLLECTORS

We usually have in stock sets, groups, or entire collections for those who have several thousand or several hundred dollars to invest in sound numismatic holdings. If you are in such a position it would be to your advantage to write us outlining the kind of material in which you are interested. We will then be able to keep you advised when such coins become available. Some of the various sets we have to offer at present are a set of Proof Indian Cents from 1856 to 1909, a complete set of Lincoln Cents Uncirculated, and a complete set of Uncirculated Commemorative Halves.

CHOICE COINS WANTED

We are paying top prices for complete or partial collections or rare single pieces, all series, all metals. What do you have available?

Whitman COIN TUBES

ONE PRICE . . . 10c any denomination

These new, improved tubes are precision molded of water-clear Polystyrene to close tolerances which permit easy filling or removing of standard count rolls, but prevent shifting or rubbing. Positive-seal cap eliminates annoying "air-resistance" and assures absolute, moisture-proof protection.

Preserve the mint-fresh brilliance of your coins with genuine Whitman coin tubes . . . look for the Whitman name neatly embossed on the bottom of each tube. Now available at your favorite dealer.

Collectors Prefer America's First Family of Coin Albums The Library of Coins

Complete visibility and complete protection, the two most-wanted features of a coin album, are presented for the first time by The Library of Coins. Bound like books, handsome and compact, each Library of Coins volume displays and protects its coins between two sliding panels of clear, tough plastic. Each coin "porthole" has printed next to it full data on mint mark and quantity minted. Each volume contains a brief background story on the coins, giving both the novice and advanced collector helpful information, including a listing of the rare dates.

Measuring $8\frac{1}{4} \times 6\frac{1}{4}$ ", the volumes are low priced, sturdily manufactured, and permanently bound in a variety of identifying colors for the various denominations. Their compact size permits the storing of a large coin collection in very small space. Backbones are clearly gold stamped so that they are as readily identifiable as are books.

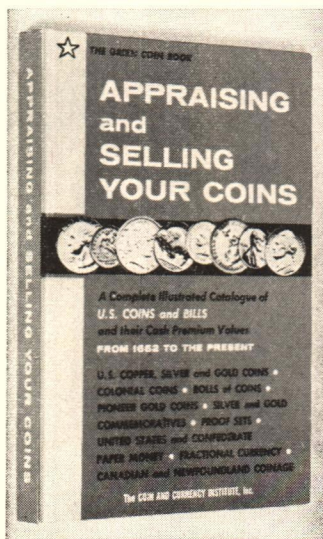

The Library of Coins is the first major innovation in high grade coin albums in more than 30 years. They were several years in development and were designed by numismatists to satisfy the needs and desires of numismatists. Write for a descriptive circular on the Library of Coins.

The Green Coin Book

"APPRAISING AND SELLING YOUR COINS"

a complete illustrated catalogue of U.S. coins and bills and their cash premium values, from 1652 to the present. And the complete coinage of Canada and Newfoundland, from 1858 to the present. Edited by Robert Friedberg.

Hard Cover, Handy Size (5" x 7½"), Fully Illustrated, 176 Pages, Price $1.75

Only in the Green Coin Book will you find the wealth of coin features being published together for the first time in one superbly produced and well designed book, such as you have grown to expect from the publishers. No other similar book, past or present, can offer the variety of valuable coin information presented here so expertly, so completely and yet so inexpensively.

You get not only a complete catalogue of the standard U. S. coins from 1793 to date in all metals, denominations, dates and mints, but also the following subjects, never before assembled into one volume:

- Rolls of Unc. coins from 1934 to date.
- U. S. Paper Money from 1861 to date.
- Colonial and early American coins.
- Confederate States Paper Money.
- Pioneer Gold Coins.
- Canadian and Newfoundland Coinage from 1858 to date.

The Green Coin Book is extremely well illustrated, coinage figures are given alongside each coin and all items show the average prices paid by dealers.

The publication of the Green Coin Book, "Appraising and Selling Your Coins," is a major event in coin literature. It satisfies an obvious need and does it very well. In this day of intense numismatic activity, no one should be without this book.

For only $1.75 you get a new standard work, crammed with so much important information, that you will consult it constantly. It is truly a unique book; it is authoritative, and for what it contains, it is an incredible bargain.

PAPER MONEY OF THE UNITED STATES

A complete illustrated guide with valuations by Robert Friedberg

For the first time in history, all types of U.S. paper money from 1861 to the present, from three cents to $10,000, are completely illustrated, with collector's valuations. A new, remarkable section, "National Bank Notes by States," illustrates and evaluates by state every National Bank Note, more than 2,200 valuations in all! Territorial Notes are also catalogued, and finally there is a geographical and numerical list of all 14,348 National Banks. More than 300 pages, 8½" x 11", cloth bound. The only reference work of its kind in the world. A definitive work, Third Edition, 1959.

We can use any quantity of choice U.S. numismatic material . . . individual items, sets, collections. We are willing to pay a generous and fair price. We have always based our purchase offers on a first hand up-to-the-minute knowledge of coin market conditions. This, together with a large sales volume, has enabled us to operate on a smaller margin of profit.

Another factor in our coin buying is knowledge and experience. In addition to handling many collections of the regular United States series we have had extensive experience in the purchase and sale of the more diverse series . . . tokens, store cards, patterns, territorial gold, Colonials, etc.

Still another factor in our coin buying for you to consider is financial responsibility. We have always given prompt payment without delay, in both purchase and auction arrangements. We invite you to check our references, both professionally and financially.

When you decide to sell your numismatic holdings give us the opportunity to make an offer. There will be no obligation whatever on your part. If you prefer to sell by auction, we offer expert and authoritative cataloging with proven results. We believe you, like many other collectors, will like the way we do business. May we look forward to the pleasure of hearing from you?

WANTED! WANTED! WANTED!

TWO COIN COLLECTIONS

DEAR COLLECTOR FRIEND:

We have two valued and wonderful customers, each with a desire to acquire a privately built collection, answering to the description below.

Their main concern is to save time and effort. They will pay a fair and honest price. They are not looking for "something for nothing." In addition, they will pay us a brokerage fee for our assistance.

One of these collectors is desirous of acquiring a rather large assortment of U. S. gold coins. He wants all denominations, with as many mintmarks and rare dates as possible. He has in mind of spending from $25,000.00 and upwards. He already has cents, nickels, dimes, etc., and is quite complete on these. Thus if you have a choice gold collection, this might be an opportunity to realize a decent price for it.

The other individual at this time has a rather good collection of U. S. coins, but they are all circulated. His Indians, Lincolns, Large cents, etc., are all complete, but mostly in fine to very fine. He would now like to buy a sizeable group of U. S. coins, all denominations, but all in Uncirculated condition. A few scattered proofs would be o.k., but he does not especially want proofs. He would like to spend $10,000.00 cash, but might even consider something larger.

Thus we say, friend collector, if you have been thinking of liquidating your holdings, and are desirous of obtaining a good price, here is your chance. There will be no waiting, no consignment, no commission to pay, no unpleasantness. I personally will visit your home or office. We will talk in confidence. You will receive a certified check, or cash.

If you have something like this, and would consider selling, please write me soon.

Sincerely,

BENJAMIN C. DREISKE, President

Don't overlook these $1.50 boards!

7½ x 14
Inches

This is the album that holds these bargains in coin boards:

The American Coin Album

Handsome and superbly well made, these binders are covered with dark brown levant-grained simulated leather over stiff boards with rounded corners. Each binder is equipped with 2-ring mechanism, 1-inch capacity, 4¾ inches, center to center. Each binder is lined with brown skytogen-grained paper and lettered with gold stamping and embossed panel. This large-size binder will hold five large coin boards, 7½" x 14".

$2.50

Album labels . . . twenty, giving all U.S. coin denominations stamped in gold on red leatherette, which may be affixed to back of binder 10 cents

SPECIAL NOTICE

Am paying up to $900.00 for Commemorative Silver Type sets, up to $2350.00 for complete sets, $850.00 for Comm. Gold sets. By selling me your set, you will get $160.00 for Hawaii, $12.50 for Bridgeport, $33.00 for Isabella, etc. Highest prices also for single coins, part sets, accumulations, any amount. Why sell for less? When better prices are paid, we will pay them.

APPROVAL SHIPMENTS

The easiest way to build up a nice coin collection, at the best values, is with my Approval Shipments. Simply send me a list of the coins you need in any series Half Cents to Gold coins, Paper Money. Or, a list of the coins you already have, if shorter. You will receive a selection of coins on approval, on which you pay $10.00 or more a month, on coins you keep. I send more coins as you make payments. You can stop shipments anytime. If you have no special series in mind, here are a few suggestions that are very popular with my customers:

TYPE SET REGULAR U. S. COINS: One coin of each different design (not dates or mintmarks), Half Cents to Silver Dollars. $6.80 best quality album to hold all these coins, with first shipment, if you want.

TYPE SET U. S. GOLD COINS: Different designs Gold Dollars to $20. pieces. Deluxe plastic holder with first shipment to hold the set.

COMMEMORATIVE HALF DOLLARS: The number one series in U.S. coins. Due to my close margin between buying and selling prices, I believe I move more Comm. coins than any other dealer. After first shipment you can decide if you want to work on the Type set or Complete set. Best Quality albums in stock for either set. Price list on request.

FOREIGN SILVER DOLLARS: Collect one silver dollar for each different country, see how many you can get. Most are still very low in price. $6.00 album with first shipment, if you want.

LARGE U. S. PAPER MONEY: Type set of different designs, disregarding complicated signatures and minor varieties. Send me list of types you have, or send for my type set Check List, on which you can cross out types you have. Friedberg Paper Money Catalogs in stock, illustrating every note, $12.50.

FRACTIONAL CURRENCY: Type set of different designs, easy to collect. Each note housed in heavy plastic holder.

OTHER COINS: A large stock always, all kinds of Cents, 2¢ 3¢ 5¢ pieces, Dimes, Quarters, Half Dollars, Silver Dollars, gold coins, CANADIAN COINS, Foreign gold coins. Good to Proof conditions. Let me know what you need.

PURCHASES: Send collections or scarcer single pieces, by Registered Mail or Railway Express. I will figure them up, and submit best offer and check. Then will hold coins for your reply. If no deal, coins will be returned prepaid. Cannot use very common circulated coins.

PRESENTING A NEW KIND OF COIN BOOK FOR ALL COLLECTORS, INVESTORS AND COLLECTOR-INVESTORS!!

UNCOVERED!

THE PRICES OF UNCIRCULATED U. S. COINS FOR EACH SEPARATE YEAR SINCE 1935!

A FASCINATING YEAR TO YEAR HISTORY OF COIN PRICES THAT WILL OPEN YOUR EYES!

LEARN WHAT THE YEARLY PRICE CHANGE PERCENTAGE HAS BEEN ON EACH COIN. MANY SURPRISES IN FIGURES REVEALED!

WHAT WILL YOUR EXPENSIVE COLLECTION, YOUR COIN INVESTMENTS, BE WORTH IN THE YEARS AHEAD . . . WHAT ARE THEIR "MATURITY" DATES AND VALUES?

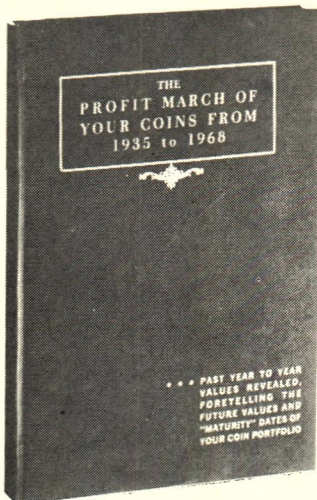

For the first time this priceless data is made available in "The Profit March of Your Coins from 1935 to 1968." Here you will find a scientific and accurate scale of future values based upon what each coin has done in the past. Up until now such predictions were based on the mere pulling of a hypothetical figure out of the air. You'll see how coin prices change over the years, the price change percentages, coinage totals, projected prices from 1961 to 1968, comments on the future . . . on each and every uncirculated coin or proof set. Reading this guide will leave you with a new respect for your investment.

Until now the factors involved in coin futurities have not been presented so there has been no yardstick with which to measure the possibilities. Now revealing pages mathematically prove that most investments in coins will, regardless of present confusion, produce future yields that will far exceed expectations!

If you have a valuable collection or have set aside rolls, you should know how long it will be before your coins are worth a certain set amount of money . . . enough, perhaps, for college educations . . . travel . . . or even partial retirement (it has been done). You'll get the answers when you have this unusual book before you. You will be shown the individual price pattern of each coin, the length of each cycle and the frequency of change. With this set pattern you can observe how long the upsurges and the downsurges lasted in the past and govern future actions accordingly.

"THE PROFIT MARCH OF YOUR COINS FROM 1935 TO 1968"

LEARN WHICH COINS ARE LIKELY TO INCREASE IN PRICE FIRST . . . WHICH WILL OFFER THE BEST SECURITY OVER THE YEARS.

Inasmuch as the past is but a mirror of the future, it would behoove any coin collector or investor to seriously review the past price history. Such records have always been available in other investment fields. Now for the first time you have that same opportunity. Don't guess or worry any longer because of a lack of investment knowledge.

GET THE FIRST AND ONLY GUIDE OF ITS KIND

An important event in the coin collecting and investing field. Only $1.98 postpaid. Deluxe edition $2.65. Dealers: write for quantity prices.

*The

by Betken

only $19.95 postpaid

Announcing . . . the NUMISMACASE, by Betken. A new, convenient and easy way to store and transport your coins.

Check the features of the NUMISMACASE:

Construction — Reinforced with heavy stitching and rivets for extra protection. Attractively finished in a light brown color. Two separate outside locks furnish extra security. Your choice of up to three monogrammed initials in 24k gold for identification.

Capacity — Holds ten long coin boxes without crowding or tipping. Your coins will be in order and easily accessible. End the inconvenience of suitcases, briefcases and other containers not made especially for coins. In addition to your coin boxes, reference books, price lists, etc., may be conveniently stored in a special inside partition.

Many Uses — Use the NUMISMACASE to take coins to club meetings, to conveniently store boxes or rolls of coins, to take coins to conventions or exhibits, and to keep all your numismatic books, folders, cases, holders, boxes and envelopes in one place while traveling.

Low Price — The NUMISMACASE is priced at a low $19.95; below the price of comparable quality briefcases, attache cases, or suitcases. $19.95 is the complete price . . . this price includes the 10% federal tax. The NUMISMACASE is sent to you postpaid.

OUR NEW YEAR'S BONUS TO YOU

We are offering an unusual method of buying this month in an effort to place in your hands some of the choice items offered here at a reduced price. Just choose the item you wish to buy, look it up in the 14th edition of the Guide Book, DEDUCT 10% FROM THE PRICE LISTED and mail in your order. Where a coin is listed as VF, take the fine price in the Guide. A coin listed as XF or AU, take the uncirculated and fine price, divide by two. This will give you the price, than deduct 10%. This 10% is applicable only to the coins listed here from 3¢ through half dollars. Be fair and you will receive the coins you order. Second and third choices will be appreciated. These will go fast so ORDER NOW. Satisfaction guaranteed.

CLUB MEMBERS, DEALERS and COLLECTORS at Large

Outside Size 2" x 18" x 30" Standard
Outside Size 3" x 18" x 30" Deep

Because of popular demand for more EXHIBIT CASES, the manufacturer for the several A.N.A. committees desires to continue supplying this best of all display cases without change of prices. The current lot of cases making will duplicate those previously made under contract to the A.N.A. with significant improvement of finish.

Mr. M. Vernon Sheldon has agreed to continue his directive association with us THE CENTRAL SHEET METAL COMPANY to produce and distribute the above illustrated case. All cases are made from No. 16-gauge auto-body steel, bonderized and finished in a mottled gray-blue porcelain enamel containing silicone for maximum durability. Cases are equipped with cover-bracing-arm, double strength glass and locks. Purchaser may select either individually or similarly keyed locks for more than one case order, or with lock number provided duplication of locks formerly purchased may be had on request. Master keying arrangements will be made up for clubs if wanted. All cases are singly cartoned per railway express approval.

CUSTOMER COMMENTS:

"Brilliantize is a wonderful product, it does a perfect job of cleaning coins." — Oregon.

"Send large size. Finest cleaner I have ever used." — Pennsylvania

"The interest in Brilliantize is fabulous." — Illinois

"I recently purchased 75 nickels that were found by a skin diver friend of mine in Lake Erie, these coins were very dirty and coated with about 10 years of lime, etc. I cleaned most of them with 'Brilliantize' and they are now in what I call Unc. condition, thanks for such a wonderful cleaner." — Buffalo, New York

"Send medium size. Was delighted with results from regular size." — Louisiana

"I was really surprised at the fast way it cleaned up my Indianheads. Enclosed you will find a money order for $2.00, please send me your medium size 'Brilliantize.' I don't know what's in this stuff, but it's really remarkable how it works." — Otis AFB — Mass.

BRILLIANTIZE is sold in kits containing a booklet of instructions, applicators, and two bottles of chemicals called Brilliantize Number One and Brilliantize Number Two.

BRILLIANTIZE No. 1 makes copper and other coins brilliant instantly.

BRILLIANTIZE No. 2 preserves this brilliancy. No. 2 also cleans badly tarnished and spotted coins.

BRILLIANTIZE — Regular size $1.00; Medium size $2.00; Large size $5.00

Useful for cleaning all kinds of coins, but particularly adapted to cleaning coins of copper or nickel.

EASY TO USE AND ECONOMICAL!
FAST ACTION — IT ACTUALLY CLEANS IN SECONDS!

Does not add shine, but brings out natural color, including original brilliance if it is still there under tarnish or coating. Dull or dark uncirculated coins become brilliant uncirculated coins in seconds.

This result of years of experiment can be safely used on valuable coins to improve their appearance and increase their value.

On sale in many leading stores in 4-oz. bottles, with full directions, at $1.00.

If your dealer does not yet have it, send us $1.00 for 3-oz. bottle (enough to clean hundreds of coins) carefully packed and postpaid to any address in the United States or Canada.

SPECIAL OFFER TO DEALERS
Send $4.00 for six 4-oz. bottles of "CCC," postpaid.

ONCE A YEAR!

Yes, right after Jan. 1 of each year I release my large annual "Stock List" pricing thousands of modern foreign coins in nice condition. There is no other retail list quite like this (no pretty pictures, though!). No charge, of course.

Here are some of my services:

1. Retail list mentioned above, plus a regular monthly list of new items, additions to stock, etc. Free to buyers, $1.00 per year to others.
2. Custom made card coin holders for housing foreign coins. Over 200 varieties on hand now, more coming.
These solve (at least partially) the problem of displaying your collection.
3. Wholesale price list showing many coins per 10 and per 100 at reasonable prices. Available to dealers only, write for it on your letterhead. New list ready about February 1.
4. Whitman Publishing Co.: I am a distributor for the Whitman line of books and supplies, and have most items on hand for immediate delivery, both wholesale and retail.
Some other things I haven't mentioned, but perhaps you should send for the stock list and see for yourself.
